Bluff Your Way in Jazz Peter Clayton, Peter Gammond, 1999 Anon It's a pretty safe bet if an unfamiliar 1940s 50s name crops up in conversation that you can easily get away with saying Oh yes Parker roomed with him for a time Even if he didn't nobody is going to be sure enough to say so And it somehow makes the unknown musician seem a better player Louisiana The decrepit state of their instruments and the decrepit state of the players who all drank heavily or smoked marijuana tended to give genuine New Orleans jazz the flavor of fried boots Jazz legends Bolden's main claim to fame was the loudness of his playing it being said with the straightest of faces that he could be heard fourteen miles away on a clear night As nobody who was fourteen miles away at the time has ever come forward to verify this it is yet another jazz legend that has to be treated with a modicum of suspicion A state of mind Anyone looking for a clear definition of the blues even in the most scholarly books will be told that blues are fundamentally a state of mind The spirit of the blues inhabits all true jazz It's what makes it funky
