Fog and rain with the spluttering arclights shining like moons out of the drizzle and a mist the rattle of wheels on cobbles soughing of fog horns down on San Francisco Bay the far off din of a cable car gong and always the dismal patter of rain along the gutter A girl stopped at the entrance of a cheap boarding house where a single electric bulb partly illuminated the faded sign Her faded old raincoat glistened in the light and her cheap felt hat leaked drops of water as she glanced up at the sign It was not because she was unfamiliar with that sign Nan Whitlock had passed under it several times a day for a number of months because it was her home That is it was the only home she had and just now she was wondering how much longer she could call it home After a short period of reflection she went inside passed the dining room door and started up the stairs Beneath the raincoat was a small parcel and she quickly slipped it farther out of sight as a step sounded on the stairs above her It was Mrs Emmett the landlady a short

chubby sort of woman but with features prematurely hardened from forcing payments Just now she narrowed her eyes and glanced upon Nan Whitlock as she partly blocked the stairs I was just at your room Miss Whitlock she said Unless you and Miss Allan pay for that room before breakfast to morrow I ve a new inhabitant for the same Was was Miss Allan there faltered Nan She was not I m tired of promises and I just heard that Miss Allan s show closes to morrow night Yes I know that said Nan meekly Oh ye do And I suppose I was to be left holding the sack as they say eh Well I m not I ve had her trunk put in storage to day and she ll not get it until the rent is all paid Oh I m sorry about that Mrs Emmett She ll be sorry too I m thinking Oh I don t mean to be cross about it but business is business If I have to I ll attach your wages my dear With a fly by night like Madge Allan all I can do is take her trunk You tell her will ye And of course that means both of ye get out unless the money is paid Her with her fine clothes and fur coats and a taxi at the door almost every night And she can t pay twenty dollars rent Well you two think it over my dear Unless I miss my guess I ll have a vacancy after breakfast She stepped aside and walked grandly down the stairs while Nan hurried on to her room where she lighted the gas jets threw off her wet coat and sat down rather heavily Nan was not pretty but she had an oval face wistful gray eyes and a wealth of wavy auburn hair Twenty two her last birthday and out of a job again
