Bmmg Vol 61:

Tales of Two Cities Camilla Townsend, 2012-04-12 Parallel histories of workers in two port cities Baltimore and Guayaquil illustrate divergent paths in the development of the Americas The United States and the countries of Latin America were all colonized by Europeans yet in terms of economic development the U S far outstripped Latin America beginning in the nineteenth century Observers have often tried to account for this disparity many of them claiming that differences in cultural attitudes toward work explain the US s greater prosperity In this innovative study however Camilla Townsend challenges the traditional view that North Americans succeeded because of the so called Protestant work ethic and argues instead that they prospered relative to South Americans because of differences in attitudes towards workers that evolved in the colonial era Townsend builds her study around workers lives in two similar port cities in the 1820s and 1830s Through the eyes of the young Frederick Douglass in Baltimore Maryland and an Indian girl named Ana Yagual in Guayaquil Ecuador she shows how differing attitudes toward race and class in North and South America affected local ways of doing business This empirical research clarifies the significant relationship between economic culture and racial identity and its long term effects

Beyond Slavery Darién J. Davis, 2006-12-21 Beyond Slavery traces the enduring impact and legacy of the African diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean in the modern era In a rich set of essays the volume explores the multiple ways that Africans have affected political economic and cultural life throughout the region Focusing on areas traditionally associated with Afro Latin American culture such as Brazil and the Caribbean basin this innovative work also highlights places such as Rio de La Plata and Central America where the African legacy has been important but little studied The contributors engage readers interested in the African diaspora in a series of vigorous debates ranging from agency and resistance to transculturation displacement cross national dialogue and popular culture Documenting the array of diverse voices of Afro Latin Americans throughout the region this interdisciplinary book brings to life both their histories and contemporary experiences Contributions by Aviva Chomsky Dari n J Davis Dario Euraque Sujatha Fernandes David Geggus Aline Helg Ricardo D Salvatore Eduardo Silva Jason Stanyek Camilla Townsend Bobby Vaughn Ben Vinson III and Judith Michelle Williams
