In the Heart of the Sea Nathaniel Philbrick, 2000 In 1819 the 238 ton Essex set sail from Nantucket on a routine voyage for whales Fifteen months later the unthinkable happened in the farthest reaches of the South Pacific the Essex was rammed and sunk by an enraged sperm whale Its twenty man crew fearing cannibals on the islands to the west decided instead to sail their three tiny boats for the distant South American coast They would eventually travel over 4 500 miles The next three months tested just how far humans could go in their battle against the sea as one by one they succumbed to hunger thirst disease and fear This is a timeless account of the human spirit under extreme duress but it is also a story about a community and about the kind of men and women who lived in a forbidding remote island like Nantucket Dust jacket
