The Republican

Revolution William Wallace,2019-05-17 The Republican Revolution of 1994 is the wicked seed that killed Nicole Brown Simpson This seed was planted to produce a hostile racial climate in America in order to repeal Affirmative Action Legislation that advanced African Americans and other minorities since the Civil Rights Movement of 1964 Advancements such as higher education college admissions and equal employment opportunities had begun to accelerate the extinction of the Political White Man causing him to become an Angry White Male According to the Center for American Progress the minority is slated to become the majority by 2043 In his efforts to continue the Civil War with the hopes that the South would rise again the fight moved from the physical arena plantation fields of Alabama to the political arena courthouses and elected conservative officials across the country Beginning with the burning of black churches in Alabama and using O J Simpson as the scapegoat for the horrific murder of an innocent white woman who was considered expendable because she allowed herself to have intimate sexual relations with a black slave was to serve two purposes 1 Create a hostile racial and political anti black and anti democratic climate in America 2 Capture the largest voting bloc the white woman by turning her against the black man O J Simpson and African Americans to ultimately elect a majority Republican House Senate and president to repeal Affirmative Action Legislation The contentious trial to exploit O J Simpson for the murder of Nicole Brown Simpson was to create an adverse racial environment across the country to elect Bob Dole as president and Newt Gingrich as vice president This would also include a majority Republican House and a majority Republican Senate in the election of 1996 The culmination of this scheme did not manifest until 2016 when Donald J Trump was elected president and Mike Pence elected vice president Today the onslaught to repeal Affirmative Action Legislation has begun the Republican Revolution of 2016 with President Donald J Trump being used as a political lackey for his signature Twenty years later exploits from the O J Simpson trial are still being used to gain a political advantage and further this agenda The Republican Revolution committed
