Silva, 2017-09-19 This book brings forth a new contribution to the study of imperialism and colonial discourse by theorizing the emergence and function of individual identity as product and producer of imperial power While recent decades of theoretical reflections on imperialism have yielded important understandings of how the West has repeatedly reconsolidated its power this book seeks to grasp the complex role of subjectivity in reformulating the terms of imperial domination from early modern European expansion to late capitalism This entails approaching Empire as a constantly shifting system of differences and meanings as well as an ontological project a mode of historical writing and economy of desire that repeatedly envelops the subject into the realm of western power The analysis of an array of literary texts and cultural artifacts is undertaken by means of a theoretically eclectic approach drawing on psychoanalysis post structuralism postcolonial theory and Marxism with the aim of forwarding current knowledge of Empire while also contributing to different branches of critical theory In exploring the formation of imperial subjectivity in different historical moments Silva raises new questions related to the signification of otherness in European expansion and colonial settlement slavery and eugenics in post independence Americas and late capitalist circulation of bodies and commodities The volume also covers a broad range of geo cultural spaces in order to locate western power in time and space This book s diversity in terms of approach historical scope and cultural contexts makes it a useful tool for research and teaching among students and scholars of disciplines including Postcolonial Studies Colonial History Literature and Globalization

Dissident Practices

Claudia Calirman,2023-03-01 In Dissident Practices Claudia Calirman examines sixty years of visual art by prominent and emerging Brazilian women artists from the 1960s to the present covering the period from the military dictatorship to the return to democracy in the mid 1980s the social changes of the 2000s the rise of the Right in the late 2010s and the recent development of an overtly feminist art practice Though they were lauded as key figures in Brazilian art these artists still faced adversity and constraints because of their gender Although many of them in the 1960s and 1970s disavowed the term feminism Calirman gives a nuanced account of how they responded to authoritarianism engaged with trauma in the aftermath of the military dictatorship interrogated social gender norms and fought against women s objectification By battling social inequalities structures of power and state violence these artists create political agency in a society in which women remain targets of brutality and discrimination

Sea-Bathing to Beach-Going B.J. Barickman,2022-04-15 2023 Honorable Mention Warren Dean Prize in Brazilian History In From Sea Bathing to Beach Going B J Barickman explores how a narrow ocean beachfront neighborhood and the distinctive practice of beach going invented by its residents in the early twentieth century came to symbolize a city and a nation Nineteenth century Cariocas residents of Rio ostensibly practiced sea bathing for its therapeutic benefits but the bathing platforms near the city center and the rocky bay shore of Flamengo also provided places to see and be seen Sea bathing gave way to beach going and sun tanning in the new beachfront neighborhood of Copacabana in the 1920s This study reveals the social and cultural implications of this transformation and highlights the distinctive changes to urban living that took place in the Brazilian capital Deeply informed by scholarship about race class and gender as well as civilization and

Y. Ramos-Zayas, 2020-03-27 In Parenting Empires Ana Y Ramos Zayas focuses on the parenting practices of Latin American urban elites to analyze how everyday experiences of whiteness privilege and inequality reinforce national and hemispheric idioms of anti corruption and austerity Ramos Zayas shows that for upper class residents in the affluent neighborhoods of Ipanema Rio de Janeiro and El Condado San Juan parenting is particularly effective in providing moral grounding for neoliberal projects that disadvantage the overwhelmingly poor and racialized people who care for and teach their children Wealthy parents in Ipanema and El Condado cultivate a liberal cosmopolitanism by living in multicultural city neighborhoods rather than gated suburban communities Yet as Ramos Zayas reveals their parenting strategies which stress spirituality empathy and equality allow them to preserve and reproduce their white privilege Defining this moral economy as parenting empires she sheds light on how child rearing practices permit urban elites in the Global South to sustain and profit from entrenched social and racial hierarchies Brazil Incarnate Christopher Pillitz, 2000 Christopher Pillitz spent five years traveling through Brazil with his camera The result is a look at the lascivious erotic cult of the body in Brazil in which the boundaries between Eros and sex narcissism and exhibitionism are virtually impossible to make out His sensual moving images reveal to us the perspective of the fascinated observer Yet Pillitz does not mime the viewer from a distance His camera seems to mingle with the people around it provoking more than one eccentric to flights of exhibitionist fancy BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Book Review Index, 2003
