

Bola de Mugre

A vibrant, stylized illustration of a village square. In the foreground, a child with dark, messy hair and a green shirt is laughing while playing with a large ball of grey mud. To the left, a white dog with brown spots is running. The background shows a bustling square with people, a horse-drawn cart, and a bicycle. The scene is set against a warm, yellow-orange sky.

Literature and the Work of Universality Alice Duhan, Stefan Helgesson, Christina Kullberg, Paul Tenngart, 2024-07-22 In an age of accelerating ecological crises global inequalities and democratic fragility it has become crucial to achieve renewed articulations of human commonality With anchorage in critical theory as well as world literary studies this volume approaches literature and modes of literary thinking as a key resource for such a task Universality is understood here not as an established universalism but as a horizon towards which intellectual inquiry and literary practices orient themselves In the field of world literature there is by now a wide repertoire of epistemological resources through which claims to universality can be both questioned and reconfigured If at one end of the spectrum world literature confronts us with the spectre of homogenisation and the commodification of difference under a regime of global capitalism at another end renewed forms of philological anthropological and ecological attentiveness to the particulars of languages and texts within the crucible of connected histories allow for defamiliarising perspectives both on received historical narratives and aesthetic practices Vernacularity emerges here as a central point of reference for constructing the universal from within the particular the idiomatic and the experiences of social subordination or complicity

Aquatic Environments Bieke Willem, Rebecca Seewald, 2025-07-27 From pre Columbian times till today human interventions in aquatic environments have been shaping the geopolitics of Latin America The contributors to this volume examine the relationship between water and politics in Latin America via readings of fiction and poetry by both renowned and upcoming writers Through close literary analysis they demonstrate how water functions as a medium for narrating submerged histories and for unsettling post colonial assumptions The volume reveals literary strategies that make it possible to share knowledge about other ways of organizing life in aquatic environments
