Bomb A Life:

The Bomb Gerard DeGroot,2011-09-30 Before the Bomb there were simply bombs lower case But it was the twentieth century one hundred years of almost incredible scientific progress that saw the birth of the Bomb the human race s most powerful and most destructive discovery In this magisterial and enthralling account Gerard DeGroot gives us the life story of the Bomb from its birth in the turn of the century physics labs of Europe to a childhood in the New Mexico desert of the 1940s from adolescence and early adulthood in Nagasaki and Bikini Australia and Siberia to unsettling maturity in test sites and missile silos all over the globe By turns horrific awe inspiring and blackly comic The Bomb is never less than compelling

The Bomb Gerard J. De Groot,2006 Traces the life of the atomic bomb from its birth in turn of the century physics labs in Europe to its maturity in test sites and missile silos around the globe examining the implications and legacy of this powerful weapon of mass destruction

The American Experience in World War II: The atomic bomb in history and memory Walter L. Hixson,2003 World War II changed the face of the United States catapulting the country out of economic depression political isolation and social conservatism Ultimately the war was a major formative factor in the creation of modern America This unique twelve volume set provides comprehensive coverage of this transformation in its domestic policies diplomatic relations and military strategies as well as the changing cultural and social arenas The collection presents the history of the creation of a super power prior to during and after the war analyzing all major phases of the U S involvement making it a one stop resource that will be essential for all libraries supporting a history curriculum This volume is available on its own or as part of the twelve volume set The American Experience in World War II For a complete list of the volume titles in this set see the listing for The American Experience in World War II ISBN 0 415 94028 1 By the Bomb's

Early Light Paul Boyer,2005-10-21 Originally published in 1985 By the Bomb s Early Light is the first book to explore the cultural fallout in America during the early years of the atomic age Paul Boyer argues that the major aspects of the long running debates about nuclear armament and disarmament developed and took shape soon after the bombing of Hiroshima The book is based on a wide range of sources including cartoons opinion polls radio programs movies literature song lyrics slang and interviews with leading opinion makers of the time Through these materials Boyer shows the surprising and profoundly disturbing ways in which the bomb quickly and totally penetrated the fabric of American life from the chillingly prophetic forecasts of observers like Lewis Mumford to the Hollywood starlet who launched her career as the anatomic bomb In a new preface Boyer discusses recent changes in nuclear politics and attitudes toward the nuclear age Theory of

Dáil,1922 The Nuclear Age in Popular Media Dick van Lente,2012-10-31 The atomic age was described as one that might soon end in the destruction of human civilization but from the beginning utopian images were attached to it as well This book compares representations of nuclear power in popular media from around the world to trace divergences convergences and exchanges The Family of Man Revisited Gerd Hurm, Anke Reitz, Shamoon Zamir, 2020-08-09 The Family of Man is the most widely seen exhibition in the history of photography The book of the exhibition still in print is also the most commercially successful photobook ever published First shown at the Museum of Modern Art in New York in 1955 the exhibition travelled throughout the United States and to forty six countries and was seen by over nine million people Edward Steichen conceived curated and designed the exhibition He explained its subject as the everydayness of life and the essential oneness of mankind throughout the world The exhibition was a statement against war and the conflicts and divisions that threatened a common future for humanity after 1945 The popular international response was overwhelmingly enthusiastic Many critics however have dismissed the exhibition as a form of sentimental humanism unable to address the challenges of history politics and cultural difference This book revises the critical debate about The Family of Man challenging in particular the legacy of Roland Barthes s influential account of the exhibition The expert contributors explore new contexts for understanding Steichen s work and they undertake radically new analyses of the formal dynamics of the exhibition Also presented are documents about the exhibition never before available in English Commentaries by critical theorist Max Horkheimer and novelist Wolfgang Koeppen letters from photographer August Sander and a poetic sequence on the images by Polish poet Witold Wirpsza enable and encourage new critical reflections A detailed survey of audience responses in Munich from 1955 allows a rare glimpse of what visitors thought about the exhibition Today when armed conflict environmental catastrophe and economic inequality continue to threaten our future it seems timely to revisit The Family of Man
