By Way Of The Cross:

The Way of the Cross, 1917 The Cross and the Way of Life Theodore Austin-Sparks, 2011-11-06 It is a very great thing to which we are called and it is a night much to be remembered when that breaks upon us But we have got to realize that it is all secured unto us by the Cross of the Lord Jesus and believe that this present stage or phase or position is not all that God means God means much more than this so we gird our loins we take our staff and we say We believe that we are going on into that by the grace of God We will not linger any longer in this whether it be good or better which is not God's best There are yet fullnesses to which the Lord is going to bring us but it must ever be firstly on the same basis not on the ground of ourselves and what we are or what we are not but on the ground of what He is And then it must be the girding of faith in appropriation and setting ourselves in the direction of the onward way by the grace of God T Austin Sparks The Way of the Cross Clemens Schmidt, 1978-07 Practically every phrase in THE WAY OF THE CROSS has been culled from Biblical and liturgical sources Consequently the reflections and prayers are dignified and substantial Wherever this form has been introduced it has received the most hearty approval The Stations are interspersed with stanzas from the Stabat Mater set to the traditional melody Large and clear type makes the booklet eminently suitable for congregational use The words of the Benediction chants are added Walking the Way of the Cross Stephen Cottrell, Paula Gooder, Philip North, 2019-10-30 Found in Common Worship Times and Seasons The Way of the Cross is a series of scripture based devotions for personal or group use in Lent and Holy Week Similar in intent to the traditional Stations of the Cross it focuses wholly on the biblical narrative of the passion death and resurrection of Jesus This seasonal companion provides the sequence of fifteen meditations appears in full including opening and concluding prayers Each is accompanied by three short reflections from different perspectives by three of today's very best spiritual writers Paula Gooder offers reflections on the scriptural narratives Stephen Cottrell considers the story from the perspective of personal discipleship Philip North explores the story's challenge to mission and witness The Way of the Cross Alvin Monnig, 2019-07-15 Follow Jesus through The Way of the Cross a Mary's Call original Mary's Call is a family owned non profit organization whose purpose is to encourage prayer The Stations of the Cross or the Way of the Cross also known as the Way of Sorrows or the Via Crucis refers to a series of images depicting Jesus Christ on the day of his crucifixion and accompanying prayers The stations grew out of imitations of Via Dolorosa in Jerusalem which is believed to be the actual path Jesus walked to Mount Calvary The object of the stations is to help the Christian faithful to make a spiritual pilgrimage through contemplation of the Passion of Christ It has become one of the most popular devotions If any want to become my followers let them deny themselves and take up their crosses and follow me Way of the Cross Virgilio P. Elizondo, 2002 When Christopher Columbus arrived in the New World in 1492 there began a new way of the cross traced for five hundred years in the lives of the poor and oppressed peoples of the Americas These short meditations on the stations by such figures as Gustavo Guterrez Enrique Dussel Leonardo Boff Helder

Camara Elsa Tamez and Jon Sobrino reflect on the passion of Christ against the background of conquest They write as Virgil Elizondo says in his preface to invite our readers to take this journey with us to share our suffering to experience our crucifixion and to taste in anticipation our Easter joy We invite all rich and poor black and brown and white clerics and lay people to a profound conversion that will stimulate us to build a better world in the Americas a world of the new humanity enjoying justice freedom and love

Leadership in the Way of the Cross Sherwood G. Lingenfelter, 2018-05-16 This book is for people who are serious about leading people men and women who have accepted big challenges who have passed through the fire of tough decisions who have acknowledged they at times have failed and have recovered for the next challenge but do not want to repeat the past The thesis of the book is that the journey of leadership takes us deep into the dangers of both authority and risk and our attempts to avoid one or the other of these dangers will precipitate crisis As a leader who desires to flourish it is critical to ask is anyone following And are we following Jesus as we invite others to follow us In this book I invite you into my journey and the journeys of other ministry leaders through the deep waters of crisis and the challenge of learning to lead so that people are following This process begins with self discovery disclosing default habits fears and hungers followed by trusting the Holy Spirit to work God's transformation within us and then to engaging the hard work of mobilizing his body the people of God so that every part is doing his work

Way of the Cross--Way of Justice Leonardo Boff, 2021-05-01 Theology has two eyes. One looks back toward the past where salvation broke in the other looks toward the present where salvation becomes reality here and now. This Way of the Cross seeks to use both eyes of theology. It is a Way of the Cross with one eye focusing on the historical Jesus his life condemnation death and resurrection. It is also a Way of Justice its other eye focusing on the Christ of faith who continues his passion today in his brothers and sisters who are being condemned tortured and killed for the cause of justice. In the light of the perspectives and convictions acquired over the course of seven years of christological studies I now present this Way of the Cross which is meant to be a prayerful theology or a theological prayer.

Leonardo Boff from the Introduction

The Way of the Cross St Escriva, 2011-04-19 Let St Josemar lead you through the Stations of the Cross and help you joyfully walk the way of the Cross in your daily life. St Josemaria provides meditations for each of the stations on the Way of the Cross. These meditations are especially suited to help find paths to holiness in the ordinary circumstances of everyday life. Beautifully illustrated with exquisite color paintings of the Stations of the Cross. Pocket size sturdy booklet. The Way of the Cross is not a sad devotion. Msgr Escriva taught many times that Christian joy has its roots in the shape of a cross. If the Passion of Christ is a way of pain it is also a path of hope leading to certain victory. As he explained in one of his homilies You should realize that God wants you to be glad and that if you do all you can you will never for a moment be without the Cross. But that Cross is no longer a gallows. It is the throne from which

Christ reigns And at his side his Mother our Mother too The Blessed Virgin will obtain for you the strength that you need to walk decisively in the footsteps of her Son Friends of God Bishop Alvaro del Portillo The Way of the Cross Joan Chittister,2013 The bestselling spiritual writer Joan Chittister reflects on 15 paintings by contemporary American artist Janet McKenzie in a 21st century interpretation of the centuries old Christian devotion When popular writer Joan Chittister heard that artist Janet McKenzie painted the fifteen stations of the cross she was eager to write the accompanying text her first book length treatment of the stations The Way of the Cross: Being Devotions on the Progress of Our Lord Jesus Christ from the Judgment Hall to Calvary as Traditionally Venerated by the Catholic Church. Drago, The Cross of Jesus Christ held a central place in the thought and teaching of the Apostle Paul Christ s offering of himself as a sacrifice on the Cross was for Paul the turning point in human history The Stations of the Cross are a much loved devotion in the Catholic Church particularly so during the season of Lent In this year devoted to the memory of the great Apostle the Church invites us to ponder Paul s life and teaching and on the perennial value of that teaching These meditations on our Lord s suffering the Way of the Cross draw their inspiration from the letters of Saint Paul With him as guide our understanding and appreciation of our Lord s suffering can only be immeasurably enhanced Gospel Herald ,1915 Way of the Cross with Pope Francis, The Pope Francis,2016 Meditations on the stations of the cross from Pope Francis The Catechism Explained Francis Spirago,1899 This Catechism is divided into three parts The first part treats of faith the second of morals the third of the means of grace In the first part Our Lord appears in His character of Teacher in the second in His character of King and in the third in His character of High Priest And since this Catechism proposes as its primary object to answer the question for what purpose are we here upon earth thereby emphasizing and giving prominence to man s high calling and destiny it is especially suited to the present day when the pursuit of material interests self indulgence and pleasure engrosses the attention of so many This Catechism is in fact nothing more nor less than an abstract of Our Lord s teaching and may be called a guide book for the Christian on the road to heaven Preface The Way of the Cross Saint Alphonsus De Liguori,2013-08-04 The Way of the Cross by Saint Alphonsus De Liguori Publisher Kindle E Book Edition ISBN 13 978 1 78379 031 9 The object of the Way of the Cross or Stations is to help the faithful to make in spirit as it were a pilgrimage to the chief scenes of Christ s sufferings and death and this has become one of the most popular of Catholic devotions It is carried out by passing from Station to Station with certain prayers at each and devout meditation on the various incidents in turn It is very usual when the devotion is performed publicly to sing a stanza of the Stabat Mater while passing from one Station to the next Included are Illustrations of the 14 Stations in depth information on the Stations various Prayers and the Stabat Mater in English and Latin The Stations of the Cross Station 1 Jesus is Condemned to Death Station 2 Jesus Bears His Cross Station 3 Jesus Falls the First Time Station 4 Jesus Meets His Mother Station 5 Jesus is Helped by Simon Station 6
