Federal Communications Commission Reports United States. Federal Communications Commission, 1970 Enter a Samurai: Full text and illustrations Joseph L. Anderson, 2011 Looking back to the last years of the nineteenth century, veteran producer-director Joseph L. Anderson draws upon a monumental body of research gleaned from libraries and archives in seven countries to introduce the Japanese theatrical impresario Kawakami Otojirō. In 1899, Kawakami, his wife, the inspired dancer and actress Sadayakko, and his troupe went on epochal performance tours of the U.S. and Europe, introducing audiences to new forms of dramatic art and dance previously unseen in the West. Possessed of boundless energy and limitless imagination, Kawakami was a pioneer who quite literally viewed the world as his stage. In the closing decade of an all too brief life, Kawakami introduced major reforms of Japanese performance and the theatre business. Scholarly, witty, and filled with fascinating insights into the culture and conventions of fin de siècle America, Europe, and Japan, Enter a Samurai opens a door into a little-known yet vitally important era of modern theatrical history. About the Author: Joseph L. Anderson has been enjoying Japanese and American plays and films for over seven decades. During the 1950s and 1960s, he wrote for and was an editorial board member on many little film magazines. Later, as professor of film in the Ohio University College of Fine Arts and adjunct in its Comparative Arts doctoral program in the early 1960s, he pioneered university-level studies of Japanese cinema. He has a BA in history from Antioch College and an MA from Ohio State University, and he was a language student at ICU Tokyo. Anderson is the principal coauthor of The Japanese Film: Art and Industry, in print for fifty years. Anderson was chief advisor for the Tokyo Broadcasting System academic program in Japanese Broadcasting Media and Culture and taught at the Tisch School of the Arts, New York University. He has been an assistant director and dialogue coach on American feature films shot in Japan, as well as a director of documentary films, a Variety stringer, and a writer of subtitles for Japanese films. In Hollywood and at WGBH Boston, he developed computer-generated subtitles for feature motion pictures, the technique in use today. During his career, he directed two independent American feature films, was an outside producer for

ABC and CBS news specials director of special projects at the American Art Theatre Guild Mid West producer for the Candid Camera Company a puppeteer a neophyte comedian in burlesque an actor in lesser touring companies director of a children's theatre and an English language benshi live narrator of Japanese silent films In his teens he was a professional scenic artist stage carpenter and minor actor with several Equity summer stock theatres Anderson is now a retired vice president of WGBH Boston the organization that for several decades has produced more than a fourth of the television programs seen nationwide on PBS In 1989 he received the Japan Prize Nihonsho for WGBH and was a Japan Foundation senior fellow in 1975
