Being Death Inscribed:

God, Death, and Time Emmanuel Lévinas, 2000 This book consists of transcripts from two lecture courses on ethical relation Levinas delivered at the Sorbonne In seeking to explain his thought to students he utilizes a clarity and an intensity altogether different from his other writings

Life Between Death and Rebirth Rudolf Steiner, 1975-04 He listened extremely attentively apparently not looking at me at all but totally devoted to my words Franz Kafka The only love that you can show me is to call me anytime day or night when you need me Rudolf Steiner to Friedrich Rittelmeyer For Peter Selg if Anthroposophy to be a living reality we must learn to know and love Rudolf Steiner as he appeared to those who knew and loved him namely as a spiritual teacher To help us do so he gathered recollections of those of who knew Steiner personally historical witnesses to the living phenomenon of the figure of the teacher It is his hope that these firsthand accounts will help readers see and experience the amazing ever mysterious person that Rudolf Steiner was a dynamic energetic dual citizen of both the spiritual and the physical worlds He moved constantly between these two realities while his whole life was dedicated in service to the spiritual evolution of humanity Nonetheless he was also deeply sociable and a true friend convivial cheerful humorous and always able to enjoy and tell a good joke He was also austere and painfully serious In other words Rudolf Steiner was a paradox Steiner was imposing but it would be difficult to say why He was slim there was no heaviness in him Indeed what seemed to strike most people first was his lightness He moved rhythmically youthfully artistically with quick light steps his posture erect but fluid his head seeming to float between Heaven and Earth Yet he was fully grounded When he stood it was as if nothing could move him When he spoke his gestures and tone expressed perfectly what he had to say He was completely one with what he said so that he changed as the content changed Those who listened to his lectures found themselves transported to the source of what they were hearing Sometimes ten Steiners would pass before them To hear a lecture was a meditation experience Quite another figure appeared in conversations which filled his every public moment One experienced luminous kindness selfless interest and intense listening attention It was as though one were singled out in the world and having a sense of being allowed complete inner freedom All who came to him for advice felt Steiner's love They felt that he saw the best in them and spoke from that point of view whether it was a matter of life's journey or esoteric training By his example then he sought to exemplify the kind of spiritual community toward which he hoped anthroposophists would strive For anyone who has wondered what Rudolf Steiner was like this book will open many windows

Another Finitude Agata Bielik-Robson, 2019-05-30 Beginning from the notion of finite life Another Finitude takes this staple subject from post Heideggerian philosophy and opposes it to the onto-theological concept of infinity represented by an eternal absolute Although critical of Heidegger and his definition of finitude as being towards death this book does not revert to the ontological idea of infinity secured in the sacred image of immortality But it also does not want to give up on infinity altogether the infinite is transposed so it can become a necessary moment of the finite life A theological framework for the new elaboration of the concept of finitude is crucial but instead of following the Lutheran formula Agata Bielik Robson turns to the sources of Judaism Taking inspiration from the Jewish idea of torat hayim the principle of finite life which found the best expression in the biblical sentence love strong as death love emerges as the alternative marker of finitude allowing to us redefine it in an affirmative way By tracing the avatars of love in the group of 20th century thinkers or messianic vitalists Benjamin Rosenzweig Arendt Derrida and deeply revised Freud the book attempts to demonstrate the possibility of such affirmation Love becomes the new infinite in the finite love in all its forms from the original libidinal endowment of the human psyche to the last metamorphoses of agape the Greco Christian divine love

Cardiff Records, Being Materials for a History of the County Borough from the Earliest Times Cardiff (Wales). Records Committee,1911 Earthly and Cosmic Man Rudolf Steiner,2025-06-24 Nine lectures held in Berlin on October 23 1911 and between March 19 and June 20 1912 CW 133 Vistas of primordial cosmic happenings of ages of gray antiquity in human history which nevertheless shed clearest light upon our present age are opened up with particular vividness in these lectures given to members of the Anthroposophical Society with certain interruptions but in constantly recurring rhythm in Berlin where Rudolf Steiner made his home for many years between continual traveling The lectures were given in order that the conscience of a small group of human beings at least might be made alive to the tasks of the time to the vital significance of the hour in which we are living Rudolf Steiner spoke gravely and impressively like the voice of destiny itself like the awakened human conscience linking his arguments with factual details in every sphere Although an unfledged humanity could not understand this voice a light must somehow be brought into the chaos even though it might reach only a small group of immature but eager hearted people An attempt was also made to penetrate here and there into the field of concrete practical life To be sure the representatives of this practical side of life as they are pleased to call it scornfully and with vicious measures of sabotage rejected everything that seemed to them so remote from reality in that it spoke of spiritual worlds Yet the living thought has the power to outlast the moment and to rise up again in a new form Its duty is to work even where there is no prospect of success in all its purity it has to find its way to souls who through constant testing gradually become open to receive it Thus out of the concrete realities of existence from which his spiritual vision was never willing to withdraw Rudolf Steiner created a science of knowledge embracing every domain of life and able to pour vitalizing creative impulses into the manifold branches of science and art philosophy and religious activity These lectures are a testament to this monumental groundbreaking achievement Monthly Bulletin of the Health Department of the City of Boston Boston (Mass.).
