The Philosophy of Benedetto Croce Herbert Wildon Carr, 1917

The Afterlife of Idealism Admir Skodo, 2016-06-01 This book examines the legacy of philosophical idealism in twentieth century British historical and political thought It demonstrates that the absolute idealism of the nineteenth century was radically transformed by R G Collingwood Michael Oakeshott and Benedetto Croce These new idealists developed a new philosophy of history with an emphasis on the study of human agency and historicist humanism This study unearths the impact of the new idealism on the thought of a group of prominent revisionist historians in the welfare state period focusing on E H Carr Isaiah Berlin G R Elton Peter Laslett and George Kitson Clark It shows that these historians used the new idealism to restate the nature of history and to revise modern English history against the backdrop of the intellectual social and political problems of the welfare state period thus making new idealist revisionism a key tradition in early postwar historiography
