The Social Studies ,1928 Historical Outlook ,1928 David Lloyd George Jerry Gaw,2026-10-25 Born on January 17 1863 in Manchester England David Lloyd George is perhaps best known for his service as prime minister of the United Kingdom during the second half of World War I While many biographies have chronicled his life and political endeavors few if any have explored how his devotion to democratic doctrines in the Church of Christ shaped his political perspectives and choices both before and during the First World War In David Lloyd George The Politics of Religious Conviction Jerry L Gaw bridges this gap in scholarship showcasing George s religious roots and their impact on his politics in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries With a comprehensive narrative that spans more than a century Gaw s book ranges beyond typical biography and examines how the work and theology of Alexander Campbell a founder of the Stone Campbell Movement in America influenced a prominent world leader George s twelve diaries and the more than three thousand letters he wrote to his brother between 1886 and 1943 provide the foundation for Gaw s thorough analysis of George s beliefs and politics Taken together these texts illuminate his lifelong adherence to the Church of Christ in Britain and how his faith in turn contributed to his proclivity for championing humanitarian egalitarian and popular political policies beginning with the first of his fifty five years in the British Parliament Broadly Gaw s study helps us to understand how the Stone Campbell tradition and later Churches of Christ became contextualized in the British Isles over the course of the nineteenth century His significant mining of primary materials successively reveals a lesser known side of David Lloyd George in large part explaining how he arrived at the political decisions that helped shape history The Metal Industry ,1910 Includes monthly Abstracts of recent literature relating to non ferrous and ferrous metals Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith,Francis Walton,1917 Metal Industry ,1910 Presidential Commission on the University for Peace Costa Rica.
