A Gust of Photo-Philia Alexandra Moschovi, 2020-12-15 The first transnational history of photography's accommodation in the art museum Photography was long regarded as a middle brow art by the art institution Yet at the turn of the millennium it became the hot global art of our time In this book part institutional history part account of shifting photographic theories and practices Alexandra Moschovi tells the story of photography's accommodation in and as contemporary art in the art museum Archival research of key exhibitions and the contrasting collecting policies of MoMA Tate the Guggenheim the V A and the Centre Pompidou offer new insights into how art as photography and photography as art have been collected and exhibited since the 1930s Moschovi argues that this accommodation not only changed photography's status in art culture and society but also played a significant role in the rebranding of the art museum as a cultural and social site The Children's Hour Charles Bruce, 2023-03-14 Reprint of the original first published in 1874 History of Central America Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1882 Examines the history of Central America and Mexico from Spanish discovery and colonization to self government and industrialization for the region History of the Pacific States of North-America Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1883 Central America Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1882 The Works of Hubert Howe Bancroft: History of Central America. 1886-1887 Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1886 History of Central America. 1883-87 Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1888 Children of Fate Adolphe Danziger, 1905 The Odd Fellow's Companion, 1870 The New Monthly Magazine, 1878 The Medical Critic and Guide William Josephus Robinson, 1923 Reporting Skin and the Wounded Body in Victorian Britain Diana Garrisi, 2024-12-05 Drawing on a wide range of primary sources this book explains what made skin newsworthy in Victorian Britain It represents a unique contribution to the media history of the human body by delving into the cultural and historical underpinnings of wound representation in Western culture Employing a case study approach the book provides a comprehensive exploration of the interplay between dermatology and the Victorian press This work suggests that there was a mutually constitutive relationship between skin reporting and the formal evolution of news discourse during the nineteenth century Narratives related to skin such as wounds caused by corporal punishment plagues resulting from neglect in workhouses and occupational skin diseases emerged as defining features of Victorian newspapers Notably media coverage of wounded skin assumed a central rhetorical position in debates pertaining to discipline abuse poverty labour and social norms a legacy still discernible in contemporary journalism Analysing the mediation of the wounded body in Victorian Britain offers a unique insight into the foundations of modern journalism It sheds light on the impossibility of maintaining an objective framework when observing and reporting on bodies in pain Paradoxically news writers and commentators of that era navigated this challenge by encapsulating such narratives within rhetorical constructs that provided a template for the evolution of contemporary news values
