Cruel Deceit:

Cruel Deceit Jana LaPelle,2019-03-26 Deceit weaves its cruel fingers in and around everything in its path Corrupting everything it touches destroying trust extinguishing love and leaving devastation in its wake Just when Lindy thinks she can put the past behind her and maybe even love again She finds herself caught up once more in the mistakes of her ex husband s past For the last four and a half years she has been in hiding She gave up everything and moved halfway around the world to keep her son and herself safe from William her ex husband and his associates with the Russian mafia Has that all been in vain Once more she is being dragged in to a world of political espionage A world she wants no part of and which threatens their very existence The stakes are high and she stands to lose everything and everyone she holds dear Bennett has been Lindy s British liaison since she was moved to the UK for her and her son s safety The moment he met her over four years ago he was smitten Just when he decides it s high time to declare his feelings for the beautiful American the safe little world that Lindy has meticulously built for herself and Landon begins to crumble Bennett knows beyond a shadow of a doubt that he will do anything to protect her and her son Lindy and Bennett soon learn that not everything is as black and white as they believe it to be Deceit is in the air and the true deceiver has yet to be unveiled If you like romance and suspense then this book is for you

A Cruel Deceit Lauren Haney,2009-10-13 From far and wide they have come to the capital city of Waset for the opulent Feast of Opet sovereigns and supplicants the pious and proud gathering for the eleven day long revelries While greeting friends and fellow Medjay officers at the bustling harbor Lieutenant Bak is distracted by foul murder the discovery of the body of a Hittite horse trader his throat savagely cut Bak has no authority to investigate what could be a simple matter of Hittite politics until similar murders occur within the sacred precinct of the Lord Amon Though this city is not his own Bak eagerly agrees to aid in the investigation But his determined search for connections embroils him in a terrifying conspiracy that points to the court of Queen Hatshepsut herself Untold others may be joining the ranks of the dead before the villain is done with Lieutenant Bak numbered among them

Cruel Deceit Robert Appleton (Detective fiction writer),2014-11 DI Bruce McCoy was too pre occupied in torturing himself with mind games about his seemingly unjust enforced well publicised retirement to notice that his wife Sally manageress of the Dreams come true charity shop in Bladdington was falling victim to the crippling effects of Dementia This stark realisation only hit home to him only after he d experienced the acute embarrassment of having an empty bank account when making the purchase of a car of his dreams Sally claimed to have no knowledge of what could have happened even if she was the one who looked after their financial affairs It was only after McCoy had pressed to involve the police in the matter that DCI Dick Starr DI Cora Grey and DI Max Cooper soon discovered Sally had been befriended on a social network site by a recipient of the Dreams come true funding while supporting a young boy dying from leukaemia in a childrens hospital in Florida In chasing the trail of the missing thousands McCoy is forced not only to confront an old bitter adversary but also the seeds of abject hatred of this particular
