Cry Anger:

Judging God Cedric Keith Johnson, 2012-08 Judging is the cognitive process of reaching a decision or drawing conclusions In our society we use judging to break the bounds of untruth that some use to control or lead astray while many are left along because of no harm no foul Many will come to see that this book entitled Judging God is nothing more than the process that one must use to judge the misconception that many use to control other more than themselves While others would see a deeper meaning in this concept of Judging God in that Judging God sets the process of freeing one's mind to understand the harm in the concept itself with the foul being we have all been led astray Judging God brings into play characters that have been left out concepts that have been removed in order to serve the few to leave the massive in limbo The conclusion is this each person that reads this book understands that in life there are no conclusions we just give up the search By judging God we as a human race do not judge ourselves to see each other as we are meant to be seen clearly mask removed no longer needing to confuse one another This is one person's life journey of struggle and conflict with the authority of a God that his followers has caused nothing but confusion and dismay while in turn has left his believer in a state of denial this denial has caused them to look away when faced with the possibility of their god being as incomplete as themselves A small child once asked after suffering death of parent their has to be a God because I have a lot of questions that need to be answered We all have questions that need answering judging God is the process of identifying his character in order to ask the right questions and getting the right answer For far too long we have all been asking all the wrong questions all the right questions to only be turned away without our questions being fully answered Follow me on this journey for I assure you won't be disappointed just imagine me as a driver on my way to liberation I don't mind hitchhiker some will not make it to the end while some will enter an enlightenment witness like never before and others will not even last a mile which one will you be

My Tears Were for Her Janet M Little, 2018-10-04 If they knew I had been sexually abused if they knew my secret they would think differently of me I'll go through life wearing this mask that I believe is one that is acceptable People will never know it's not the real me Yet my life is not real I don't know real love for others or for myself There has to be more to life on earth I must tell I must be real about who I am with those I love and especially myself If I don't it will surely be the death of me The stress the inner turmoil the need to be someone I'm not is too difficult to live with any longer I must come clean I must get real in order to have a real life And so I did This is my story
