Faith Matters Kerry Walters,2019-06-17 In a day in which Christians too often reduce faith to mere sentimentality and atheists decry it as superstitious nonsense Fr Kerry Walters offers a series of reflections intended to show that indeed faith matters Drawn from his popular weekly newspaper column Faith Matters these short meditations explore Christian faith from the perspectives of doctrine spirituality ethics politics art and science the saints and the holy seasons that mark the Christian year and set the rhythm of Christian living The BOLD Leader: Decide What Matters and Deliver What Counts

has been reluctance to acknowledge the new meaning that current debates on toleration have when compared with those at its origins in the early modern period and with subsequent discussions about pluralism and freedom of expression This collection starts from a clear recognition of the new terms of the debate It recognises that a new academic consensus is slowly emerging on a view of tolerance that is reasonable in two senses Firstly of reflecting the capacity of seeing the other s viewpoint secondly on the relatively limited extent to which toleration can be granted It reflects the cross thematic and cross disciplinary nature of such discussions dissecting a number of debates such as liberalism and communitarianism public and private multiculturalism and the politics of identity and a number of disciplines moral legal and political philosophy historical and educational studies anthropology sociology and psychology A group of distinguished authors explore the complexities emerging from the new debate They scrutinise with analytical sophistication the philosophical foundation the normative content and the broadly political implications of a new culture of toleration for diverse societies Specific issues considered include the toleration of religious discrimination in employment city life and community social ethos publicity justice and reason and ethics The book is unique in resolutely looking forward to the theoretical and practical challenges posed by commitment to a conception of toleration demanding empathy and understanding in an ever diversifying world An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence What You Believe Matters in Raising Your Children Cameron McGough,2021-09-07 This book brings to the forefront key Biblical doctrines for the purpose of Christian parenting What parents believe about God the Bible salvation mankind the church and last times really do matter in the lives of their children I hope those who read this will find encouragement to raise their children God s way and for His glory while achieving personal spiritual growth as well The Responsibility of Intellect in Matters of Faith Edward Bouverie Pusey,1873 Impartiality in Moral and Political Philosophy Susan Mendus,2002-04-25 The debate between impartialists and their critics has dominated both moral and political philosophy for over a decade Characteristically impartialists argue that any sensible form of impartialism can accommodate the partial concerns we have for others By contrast partialists deny that this is so They see the division as one which runs exceedingly deep and argue that at the limit impartialist thinking requires that we marginalise those concerns and commitments that make our lives meaningful This book attempts to show both that the dispute between impartialists and their critics runs very deep and that it can nonetheless be resolved The resolution begins by asking how impartialist political philosophy can defend the priority of justice when it conflicts with people s commitments to their conceptions of the good It is argued that priority can only be defended if political impartialism has a moral foundation and that moral foundation must not be a foundation in the ideal of equality as is often thought but a foundation in the partial concerns we have for others In short impartialist moral philosophy must take our partial concerns as central if it is to gain allegiance However if it does take our partial concerns as central then it can generate a defence of political impartialism which shows why justice must take priority but which also acknowledges that
