Bells Of Burracombe:

Bells of Burracombe Lilian Harry,2010 The Bells Of Burracombe Lilian Harry,2010-08-19 The beginning of the beloved village series from Sunday Times bestselling author Lilian Harry When Stella Simmons comes to the Devonshire village of Burracombe to start her teaching career she is alone in the world Orphaned as child and brought up in a children s home she was separated from her sister Muriel and has never been able to trace her Stella is soon caught up in the life of the village and especially in the plans for celebrating the Festival of Britain As headmistress Miss Kemp and vicar Basil Harvey try to keep the peace between villagers who all have their own ideas for the proposed pageant and fair Stella tries with the help of artist Luke Ferris to find her sister But Luke has his own troubles THE BELLS OF BURRACOMBE begins the story of life in a Devonshire village in the 1950s and shows us a picture of Britain coming to terms with the aftermath of the Second World War and entering a new decade The Bells Of Burracombe; A Stranger in Burracombe Lilian Harry,2007

Farewell to Burracombe Lilian Harry,2016-08-25 The heartwarming final installment of the Burracombe series in a Devonshire village that s a home from home The day that Hilary and David have been waiting for has finally arrived and as the church bells ring out for the arrival of the bride everyone s fingers are crossed for the day to go without a hitch The festivities set the tone for the year ahead and there s more love in the air in Burracombe as planning continues for both Dottie and Joe s and Frances and James s nuptials There s nothing like a wedding to bring the village together Times are changing in Burracombe and as young and old embark on new adventures it s time to say goodbye But with friends like these a goodbye is rarely for ever so instead we ll say a very fond farewell Make sure you ve read Lilian Harry s latest book A Child in Burracombe a prequel to the series that will show you where it all began LILIAN HARRY COLLECTION LILIAN.

HARRY,2011 A Child in Burracombe Lilian Harry,2017-08-24 Return to Burracombe in this warm and charming prequel to Lilian Harry s Burracombe series and journey back to where it all began Devon 1943 In the village of Burracombe Dig for Victory is more than just a wartime slogan While the young men are away everyone at home knows the war effort needs them too Whether it s Land Girls on the farms wives and mothers having to make do and mend or the villagers knowing how to stretch rations to keep spirits bright there is always something to be done to help When the Barton is requisitioned as a children s home for war orphans all of Burracombe rallies round to welcome their newest arrivals particularly little Maddy Simmons Still reeling from losing her mother and brother in the Plymouth blitz and her father being killed at sea now in a cruel twist Maddy has been sent to a different children s home to her beloved sister As Maddy explores the village and makes new friends she begins to feel at home and realises that Burracombe is the kind of place where you will always have someone to turn to even when times are hard Could this be somewhere she could finally call home This heart warming story gives a different perspective to the village as it adapts to the struggles of wartime and explores the story of a much loved character in the wonderful Burracombe series The Weaver's Daughter Lilian Harry,2016-04-14 The Weaver s

Daughter was first published in paperback under the name Donna Baker In the 1800s in the Midlands it s a hard life for the weavers of Kidderminster beautiful carpets spring from the looms they work but life is not always so neatly woven So it is for the Himley family already struggling to get by they must find a way of coping when their daughter Bessie is raped and disappears with her brother Tom to London suspected of murder But hope comes in the form of Rebecca their youngest daughter A job in service for the Pagnel family owners of the carpet factory means a chance of different life for Rebecca As she gradually rises to the position of housemaid she gets a glimpse of a world far removed from that she was born to When love beckons she is unsure following your heart can be dangerous and for Becky will it be her saving or her downfall

The Weaver's Dream Lilian Harry,2016-04-14 The Weaver s Dream was first published in paperback under the name Donna Baker London 1824 Life has taken Rebecca far from her humble start in a weaver s cottage in Kidderminster But although she has found love and comfort with her husband Francis it has meant they are both banished from the town that raised them Instead they must raise their family and a new business in the bustle of the capital But when a death finally draws them home to Worcestershire they find the landscape unchanged but the poverty increased Amid the smoke of the factories and the clatter of machinery there is also the growing murmur of unrest as the workers search for a way to express their discontent For Rebecca Francis and their young family it means being torn between family duty and sympathy for the weavers plight And while they have a dream for the future will it be strong enough to survive the turmoil ahead

A Stranger In Burracombe Lilian Harry,2010-08-19 A beautiful tale in the bestselling series set in a Devon village in the 1950s Like the rest of the nation the Burracombe villagers are shocked when King George the Sixth dies suddenly in 1952 But in the midst of their grief the arrival of a stranger in the village on the very same day goes almost unnoticed as the villagers have their own concerns Farmer s daughter Val needs to find a home before she can marry her sweetheart Hilary is struggling to come to terms with her new responsibilities and Stella is still getting to know the sister she thought she had lost during the war While the children at the village school are as lively and inquisitive as ever there are still conflicts and feuds among the long standing residents of Burracombe Then a search for a family draws the whole village together and more than one person is led to question their own ideas about families and what they mean

The Weaver's Glory Lilian Harry,2016-04-14 The Weaver s Glory was first published in paperback under the name Donna Baker It is 1837 When Rebecca looks back at her life she has seen much change and much sorrow Still young it is hard for her to believe she has gone from scullery maid to mistress of Pagnel House But without her husband at her side can she make the dreams they had for the future still come true Still reeling from her loss she must find a way of carrying on Her husband s cousin Vivian is appalled at the idea of a woman running a business Should she for the sake of her sons and her business accept Vivian s offer of marriage It will take all her strength and all her courage to discover where her future lies and whether it is rooted in the land and people around her or if the memory of a man now toiling on the other side of the world in Australia will change her destiny

Bid Time

Return Lilian Harry, 2015-11-19 Previously published in paperback under the name Donna Baker Cumbria 1901 aged twenty one Joanna has never seen England before Now her father s death has sent her home from India back to a country and family she has never known As she prepares to meet relations of her father for the first time she must also ready herself to claim her inheritance and house and working mines in this new land But Joanna has brought with her another inheritnace a knowledge and affinity with the customs and traditions of India the nation which raised her And the dreams she has now are not just visions of her past but they might just become guidance for her future As she grows to understand the stories behind the tragic loves and marriages in her family s past she wonders if she will be the one to break the pattern But answering this question will test her to the limit

An Endless Song Lilian Harry, 2015-11-19 Previously published in paperback under the name Donna Baker Rowenna Mellor s life in the small Cumbrian mill village of Burneside has already known hardship she lost her mother young but friends and the bond with her beloved brother kept her going Now in the spring of 1885 he too has been snatched away from her Rowenna knows she must now devote to caring for her father and even falling in love cannot be a free choice for her But a chance for salvation comes from an unexpected direction To grasp the opportunity Rowenna must risk everything her good name her liberty and her heart and defy the restrictions of her narrow life Rowenna realises that starting a new life far away under the wide open skies of Canada will bring her freedom but at what price And will those she loves and those she fears find a way of following her there

Secrets in Burracombe Lilian Harry, 2011-08-18 Come home to Burracombe the village where life is full of surprises A seemingly sleepy Devonshire village Burracombe is in fact full of intrigue and drama Family secrets budding romance cruel twists of fate and amazing friendships all play out against the backdrop of the beautiful countryside It s autumn 1953 The village is delighted when Joe Tozer who left Burracombe as a young man in 1919 returns to visit his family His life since emigrating to the States has been a world away from rural Devon but coming home he falls in love with the place and one particular person all over again With him is his eldest son Russell He sets hearts fluttering in the village but will there be anyone on his arm when he catches the boat back to America

Celebrations in Burracombe Lilian Harry, 2014-08-14 Through the hard times and the good true friends stand side by side Set in Devon the terrific new novel in the feel good Burracombe series The latest book in the Burracombe series CELEBRATIONS IN BURRACOMBE draws together many threads of life in the little Devonshire village where triumph and tragedy have always rubbed shoulders It s the late 1950s and change is in the air For the Napier family up at the big house the old ways are shifting Hilary must discover if reaching out for a chance of happiness must mean breaking away from the life expected of her while Patsy their young housekeeper s help is facing motherhood without her own family around her Down the hill from the Napiers villagers young and old are setting out on adventures Stella and Felix begin married life change comes to the village school and the Tozer family continue to find surprises in their midst Warm poignant and heartfelt CELEBRATIONS IN BURRACOMBE serves up another delicious slice of country life

Springtime In Burracombe Lilian

Harry,2009-07-23 A warm and compelling tale part of Lilian Harry s terrific Dartmoor based series The village of Burracombe is looking forward to the Coronation but 1953 is to prove to be a year of heartbreak as well as celebration While Stella begins to plan her wedding her sister Maddy is only just coming to terms with the loss of her own fianc Val and Luke are wondering if they will ever become parents and Hilary s chances of marriage seem at first to come closer then to recede The Tozer family also face anxiety As grandmother Minnie fights for her life Tom and Joanna s premature twins battle with their own crisis and Jackie working and living in Plymouth is determined to live her own life Meanwhile the life of the village goes on with all its ups and downs its feuds and differences Bossy Joyce Warren tries to organise everything and everyone Miss Kemp and Stella plan yet another event for the school Jacob Prout strives to keep Burracombe looking its best for the festivities and romance comes from a quite unexpected direction Storm Over Burracombe ,2007 An Heir for Burracombe Lilian

Harry,2010-08-19 There s nowhere quite like Burracombe a village full of warmth and intrigue It s a summer s day in 1953 that turns Hilary Napier s life upside down When Marianne a beautiful French woman knocks on her door Hilary can t help but be struck by Robert the young boy with her He has the same eyes as the brother she lost in the war As she listens to Marianne s sad tale she realises that her soldier brother lives on in the son he never met But this is only the first revelation As the village of Burracombe tries to make sense of the strangers in their midst there is also much to celebrate A wedding is being planned a birth is imminent and a courtship just beginning Yet as always life is complicated and some people must learn cruel truths about the world Snowfall in Burracombe Lilian Harry,2012-09-27 It may be winter but in the Devonshire village of Burracombe there is always warmth and friendship no matter what troubles arise In the village of Burracombe nothing stays secret for long and behind the peaceful rural charm there s always a scandal to uncover a newcomer to the village to set tongues wagging a happy occasion to celebrate or friends to help their neighbours through the tough times It s December 1953 and for Stella Simmons recovering from a car crash the winter wedding that she and her sweetheart had planned seems impossible Elsewhere in the village Jackie Tozer is dreaming of America and Hilary Napier who thought the war had robbed her of her chance of happiness has to ask herself if she could ever imagine leaving her life at the big house for the sake of love and adventure The darkest time of the year finds everyone asking questions with no easy answer As snow falls softly on the village Burracombe proves once again that there s always a surprise just around the corner

A Burracombe Easter Lilian Harry,2014-04-17 Everyone has a secret in their past discover the hidden lives of some of the best loved residents of Burracombe Escape to the little Devonshire village that feels like home with this compelling Burracombe short story On Easter day in 1918 as the Great War entered its closing stages Frances Kemp looked out at the little thatched village in the valley below and promised that one day she d come back For long before Miss Kemp became headmistress of the village school when she was just a teenager she had reason to know and love Burracombe Sent to stay with family in the village young Frances treasured her summers there and the friends she made But as she grows up she admits that there is someone there who is more than just a friend Yet just as they realise their childhood bond is deepening into something else war is declared and life will never be the same again As Frances watches so many of her friends and family get called away to war she must struggle to find a way to play her part a way to get by while her sweetheart is away and a way to think about what lies ahead in a world where every day brings ever more uncertainty The British National
