Agriculture of Maine Maine. Board of Agriculture, 1901 Postcolonial Screen Adaptation and the British Novel Vivian Y. Kao, 2020-10-01 This book brings film adaptation of literature to bear on the question of how nineteenth century imperial ideologies of progress continue to inform power inequalities in a global capitalist age Not simply the promotion of general betterment for all improvement in the British colonial context licensed a superior master race to uplift its colonized populations morally socially and economically This book argues that on the one hand film adaptations of nineteenth century novels reveal the arrogance and coercive intentions that underpin contemporary notions of development humanitarianism and modernity improvement s post Victorian guises On the other hand the book also argues that the films use their nineteenth century source texts to criticize these same legacies of imperialism By bringing together film adaptation postcolonial theory and literary studies the book demonstrates that adaptation as both method and cultural product provides a way to engage with the baggage of ideological heritage in our contemporary global media environment Agriculture of Maine Maine.
