

The background is a detailed landscape painting. It shows a wide valley with a river or stream winding through it. In the foreground, there are several trees, some with autumn-colored leaves. In the middle ground, a small settlement or camp is visible on the riverbank. The background features majestic mountains, some with snow or light-colored rock. The sky is filled with soft, golden light, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall style is reminiscent of 19th-century landscape art.

Ben's Nugget Jr. Horatio Alger, 2017-06-20. This is a story book. A Story of the Pacific Coast. Ben's Nugget is the concluding volume of the Pacific Series. Though it is complete in itself and may be read independently, the chief characters introduced will be recognized as old friends by the readers of The Young Explorer, the volume just preceding, not omitting Ki Sing, the faithful Chinaman, whose virtues may go far to diminish the prejudice which, justly or unjustly, is now felt toward his countrymen. Though Ben Stanton may be considered rather young for a miner, not a few as young as he drifted to the gold fields in the early days of California Mining, is carried on now in a very different manner, and I can hardly encourage any of my young readers to follow his example in seeking fortune so far from home.
