Cry Elshaddai:

Cry Elshaddai Leona, John Doty, 2003 Tyrone sits at a table cutting a key of cocaine As he picks up a razor blade it turns into a hundred dollar bill and in his other hand is a knot It looks as though he has been counting it Unfortunately the sight of it seems to disgust him and he throws all of it across the table The hundreds and twenties fall across the newly cut snow He sits staring at the money Suddenly someone grabs his shirt and he is back in his old bedroom The strong hands of the figure slam him against his dresser and he is eye to eye with the person that he soon realizes is his father And with one powerful blow of his father s fist Tyrone is knocked to the floor He shields himself from anymore blows but things become dark and Tyrone feels it is safe to take his arms away from his face but when he does he finds himself outside the Pastor s Study at church He slowly opens the door in time to see his father hit his mother and though he has only punched her his mother lies on the floor twisted in an odd position Her face is white and her eyes are filled with fear as they gaze at him He rushes to his mother s aid yelling at his father but his father backhands him And even though it stings hard enough for him to cry he is not knocked down He comes back with his fist across the Pastor s face and they begin to fight Members from the congregation barge in and begin to separate them but The Reverend gets in one last hit Tyrone is knocked to the floor as the scene around him becomes black Tyrone begins to desperately wish that he could see where he is Suddenly an orangish red glow begins to brighten the area and Tyrone feels the stinging swelling of his face and the blood that seems to be streaming from his lower lip nose and just above his right eye He looks around realizing he is in a cave He stands up but as he does the rocks catch fire and flames begin to spring up and cover the walls Feeling the intense heat surrounding and engulfing him he raises his hands in the air and screams for help

READER S REVIEW OF CRY ELSHADDAI I had the pleasure of reading the new book by L ona Cry Elshaddai Certainly I expected the book to have a spiritual tilt on it just based on the title However I was totally surprised to find that the book contained such spiritual content I picked the book up on Thursday night half expecting to read a few pages and put it down beside the other three or four books that I am currently in the process of reading I was pleasantly surprised that this book did more than hold my interest I was not able to put it down until I had read it from cover to cover I recommend this book to every young person who is living in this world and unsure of how to proceed as it relates to making a commitment to Christ This book speaks to the very real issues plaguing our young people today The pressures of society the pressures of home life the very pressures of the Church in their lives What decisions will they make when all the chips are down It was a delightful story I know of quite a few young people who are living it today It is a must read with a surprising ending Rev Vanessa Alford Pastor Maranatha Bible Fellowship CC Church Baltimore Maryland
