

The background of the cover is a warm, golden sunset over a beach. In the foreground, the silhouettes of two children are visible. On the left, a child stands with their back to the camera, looking out at the ocean. To their right, another child stands facing them, holding a fishing net. The sky is a gradient of yellow and orange, with the sun low on the horizon. The branches of a tree are visible in the upper left corner, and the dark silhouette of a tree trunk is on the far left. The overall mood is nostalgic and evocative.

Cuckoos Parting Cry:

The Cuckoo's Parting Cry Anthea Halliwell, 2012-02-29 For Fidgie living in pre war Wales the long school holiday stretched blissfully ahead With her new friend Chaz as companion for idyllic summer days by the sea she was able frequently to escape her edgy mother and her malicious older sister Cly Her father mercifully was away from home Through Fidgie s clear eyes the events of a brief hot spell in August unfold her family and neighbours become involved in adultery deception and other darker misdemeanours The eight year old child is an engaging and lively narrator swept along by her extraordinarily compelling tale the reader will realise that underlying Fidgie s innocent accounts of family meals fishing trips round the bay tree climbing and playing at May Queens a very adult sub text is developing Its conclusion is both tragic and inevitable Anthea Halliwell s novel marks the emergence of a delightfully individual voice and a most original storytelling talent
