Diefenbaker's World A Populist In Foreign Affairs:

Diefenbaker's World H. Basil Robinson, 1991      Diefenbaker and Latin America Jason Gregory Zorbas, 2011-07-13
John Diefenbaker's Latin American policy was based on his vision of Canada's national interest which placed a strong emphasis on the achievement of greater autonomy in foreign policy for Canada vis vis the US and the expansion of Canadian exports to the region Though Diefenbaker was often accused of being driven by anti Americanism instead his Latin American policy was based on his vision of Canada's national interest For Diefenbaker an enhanced relationship with Latin America had the potential to lessen Canada's dependency on the US while giving Latin American countries an outlet for their trade commercial and financial relations other than the US This new approach implied that Canada would formulate and implement policy that focused more on Canadian political interests and goals It was not a matter of charting a totally independent policy from the US in Latin America true policy independence was impossible to achieve Nor was it the case that Canada would necessarily set itself in opposition to the US when it disagreed with its policies For Diefenbaker the goal was to pursue a foreign policy that was aligned with but not subservient to the US      Reassessing the Rogue Tory Janice Cavell, Ryan M. Touhey, 2018-11-15 The years when John Diefenbaker's Progressive Conservatives were in office were among the most tumultuous in Canadian history Coming to power on a surge of optimistic nationalism in 1957 the Rogue Tory had stirred up more controversy than any previous prime minister by the time he was defeated in 1963 This was nowhere more apparent than in his handling of international affairs This book reassesses foreign policy in the Diefenbaker era to determine whether its failures can be mainly attributed to the prime minister's personality traits particularly his indecisiveness or to broader shifts in world affairs Written by leading scholars who mine new sources of archival research the chapters examine the full range of international issues that confronted Diefenbaker and his ministers and probe the factors that led to success or failure decision or indecision on specific issues Rather than dismissing Diefenbaker as a Rogue Tory on the world stage this fascinating reconsideration of the Diefenbaker years challenges readers to push beyond the conventional and reassess his record with fresh eyes      Diefenbaker's World Henry Basil Robinson, 1989      Canada First, Not Canada Alone Adam Chapnick, Professor of Defence Studies Adam Chapnick, Asa McKercher, Assistant Professor of History Asa McKercher, 2024 The definitive history of Canadian foreign policy since the 1930s Canada First Not Canada Alone examines how successive prime ministers have promoted Canada's national interests in a world that has grown increasingly complex and interconnected Case studies focused on environmental reform Indigenous peoples trade hostage diplomacy and wartime strategy illustrate the breadth of issues that shape Canada's global realm Drawing from extensive primary and secondary research Adam Chapnick and Asa McKercher offer a fresh take on how Canada positions itself in the world      The Diefenbaker Legacy University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, Right Honourable John G. Diefenbaker Centre for the Study of Canada, 1998 This publication compiles selected papers presented at a conference that marked the 40th anniversary of the advent to power of John Diefenbaker as prime minister of Canada The papers provide a retrospective look at the domestic and international political issues and policies confronting the Diefenbaker government during an era of significant political and social change They attempt to assess the legacy of Diefenbaker and his government's policies and decisions in different aspects of Canadian public policy and in the political culture of the years that followed The papers cover such topics as Canada United States relations Canadian defence and security political leadership human rights federal provincial relations and relations with the press and the bureaucracy
