new positive interpretation of Difference and Repetition Deleuzian Encounters Anna Hickey-Moody, Peta Malins, 2007-11-13 Deleuzian Encounters brings together sixteen accessible thought provoking essays that examine the practical and ethical implications of Deleuze's philosophy for different contemporary social issues. Topics explored include the environment, terrorism, refugees, indigenous reconciliation, gender, suicide, intellectual disability, injecting drug use, classroom teaching, and global activism. Each contribution provides practical examples of how to make use of Deleuze's thought in social research and offers fresh insights into the creative and innovative potentials Deleuze's philosophy holds for social thought and action.

Deleuze and Marx Dhruv Jain, 2009 A study of the relationship between Deleuze and Guattari and Marx and their respective works Munsey's Magazine, 1907 Studies in Language and Literature, 1998 The Works of Charles Babbage: The difference engine and table making Charles Babbage, 1989 Multiplicity and Becoming Patrick Hayden, 1998 Argues that one of the most crucial but overlooked aspects of the contemporary French philosopher's work is his conception of a radical empiricism of dynamic and creative difference. Examines all his major works from that perspective and discusses his critique of the traditional representationalist principles of western metaphysics, his affirmation of immanence and relation, and the relevance of his anti-Platonism for environmental politics and ethics. Some of the text is revised from previous publication. Conference, 1925 Postmodern Studies, 1999 Radical Philosophy, 2006 The Political Mind, Or, 'How to Think Differently' Kieran Laird, 2008 Explores how contemporary developments in political theory and neuropsychology can be used to explore the political implications of the relationship between conscious and nonconscious thought. Belief, Bodies, and Being Deborah Orr, Linda López McAlister, Eileen Kahl, Kathleen Earle, 2006-04-06 InBelief Bodies and Being twelve distinguished contributors present diverse and illuminating viewpoints on feminist issues of embodiment, materialism, and agency from feminist and postmodernist philosophical perspectives. Beginning by positing non-traditional ways of approaching ontological concerns through the acknowledgement of agential realities and the usage of an ontology of tropes, the volume concludes by addressing highly specific culturally constituted types of postmodern bodies: monstrous, anorexic, and pharmaceutical bodies.
