Different Paths Different Summits A Model For Religious Pluralism:

Different Paths, Different Summits Stephen Kaplan, 2002 In a world where religious pluralism is a necessity of modern life diverse religions exist for the diverse people populating the earth Theologically how do people of different faiths find liberation in their separate gods simultaneously Stephen Kaplan answers this question with his new book Different Paths Different Summits He presents a model for religious pluralism that does not fall victim to the criticisms of pluralist models Religious positions do not need to be transcended in order for varying faiths to be both honored and liberating simultaneously Kaplan skillfully depicts three different realities a theistic ultimate reality a monistic ultimate reality and a process non dualism along with their beliefs His model allows for each to exist simultaneously mutually interpenetrating and distinct

The Grace of Being Fallible in Philosophy, Theology, and Religion Thomas John Hastings, Knut-Willy Sæther, 2020-11-05 Why is epistemic fallibilism a viable topic for Christian thought and cultural engagement today Religious fundamentalists and scientific positivists tend to deal with reality in terms of knockdown arguments and such binary approaches to lived reality have helped to underwrite the belligerence and polarization that mark this age of the social media echo chamber For those who want to take both religion and science seriously epistemic fallibilism offers a possible moderating stance that claims neither too much nor too little for either endeavor nor forces a decision for one side over and against the other This book uses this epistemological approach to fallibilism as a positive resource for conversations that arise at the intersection of philosophy theology and religion The essays explore a range of openings into the interstices of these often siloed fields with the aim of overcoming some of the impasses separating diverse ways of knowing
