Digging Up The Mountains Selected Stories:

Digging Up the Mountains Neil Bissoondath, 2011-02-04 This dazzling collection of short stories originally published in 1985 marks the brilliant debut of Neil Bissoondath a major voice in Canadian fiction Focusing on contemporary themes of cultural dislocation revolution and the shifting politics of the Third World the stories resonate with Bissoondath's compassion for people threatened by circumstances beyond their control Canadian Literature in English W. J. Keith, 2006 W J Keith has chosen to ignore utterly both the popular at the one extreme Robert Service Lucy Maud Montgomery as well as the avant garde at the other bpnichol Anne Carson in favour of those authors whose style lends itself to the simple pleasure of reading and to that end Keith dedicates his history to all those including those of the general reading public whose endangered status is much lamented who recognize and celebrate the dance of words

The Diaspora Writes Home Jasbir Jain, 2017-09-13 This book by eminent author Jasbir Jain explores the many ways the diaspora remembers and reflects upon the lost homeland and their relationship with their own ancestry history of the homeland culture and the current political conflicts Amongst the questions this book asks is how does the diaspora relate to their home and what is the homeland's relationship to the diaspora as representatives of the contemporary homeland in another country The last is an interesting point of discussion since the present of the homeland and of the diaspora cannot be equated The transformations that new locations have brought about as migrants have travelled through time and interacted with the politics of their settled lands Africa Fiji the Caribbean Islands the UK the US Canada as well as the countries created out of British India such as Pakistan and Bangladesh have altered their affiliations and perspectives This book gathers multiple dispersions of emigrant writers and artistes from South Asia across time and space to the various homelands they relate to now The word write is used in its multiplicity to refer to creative expression as an inscription as connectivity and remembrance Writing is also a representation and carries its own baggage of poetics and aesthetics categories which need to be problematised vis vis the writer and his/her emotional location
