Kierkegaard's Influence on Philosophy Jon Bartley Stewart, 2012 Kierkegaard s relation to the field of philosophy is a particularly complex and disputed one He rejected the model of philosophical inquiry that was mainstream in his day and was careful to have his pseudonymous authors repeatedly disassociate themselves from philosophy But although it seems clear that Kierkegaard never regarded himself as a philosopher there can be no doubt that his writings contain philosophical ideas and insights and have been profoundly influential in a number of different philosophical traditions The present volume documents these different traditions of the philosophical reception of Kierkegaard s thought The articles featured here demonstrate the vast reach of Kierkegaard s writings in philosophical contexts that were often quite different from his own Tome I is dedicated to exploring the reception of Kierkegaard in Germanophone and Scandinavian philosophy Kierkegaard has been a major influence for such different philosophical projects as phenomenology hermeneutics dialogical thinking critical theory Marxism logical positivism and ordinary language philosophy Similarly in Denmark and Norway Kierkegaard s writings have been more or less constantly discussed by important philosophers despite the later dominance of analytic philosophy in these countries The present volume features articles on the leading Germanophone and Scandinavian philosophers influenced by Kierkegaard s thought

Dilthey, 2012-12-06 Perhaps no philosopher has so fully explored the nature and conditions of historical understanding as Wilhelm Dilthey His work conceived overall as a Critique of Historical Reason and developed through his well known theory of the human studies provides concepts and methods still fruitful for those concerned with analyzing the human condition Despite the increasing recognition of Dilthey's contributions relatively few of his writings have as yet appeared in English translation It is therefore both timely and useful to have available here two works drawn from different phases in the development of his philosophy The Ideas Concerning a Descriptive and Analytic Psychology 1894 now translated into English for the first time sets forth Dilthey's programmatic and methodological viewpoints through a descriptive psychology while The Understanding of Other Persons and Their Expressions of Life ca 1910 is representative of his later hermeneutic approach to historical understanding

DESCRIPTIVE PSYCHOLOGY AND THE HUMAN STUDIES Dilthey presented the first mature statement of his theory of the human studies in volume one of his Einleitung in die Geisteswissenschaften Introduction to the Human Studies published in 1883 He argued there that for the proper study of man and history we must eschew the metaphysical speculation of the absolute idealists while at the same time avoiding the scientific reduction of positivism
