Sivanandan, 1991-03-20 This collection of A Sivanandan s writings looks at the history of black struggles against British racism from the 1940s to the uprisings of Brixton and Toxteth in the 1980s Imagining Home Sidney J. Lemelle, Robin D.G. Kelley, 1994-12-17 This collection of original essays brilliantly interrogates the often ambivalent place of Africa in the imaginations cultures and politics of its New World descendants Combining literary analysis history biography cultural studies critical theory and politics Imagining Home offers a fresh and creative approach to the history of Pan Africanism and diasporic movements A critical part of the book s overall project is an examination of the legal educational and political institutions and structures of domination over Africa and the African diaspora Class and gender are placed at center stage alongside race in the exploration of how the discourses and practices of Pan Africanism have been shaped Other issues raised include the myriad ways in which grassroots religious and cultural movements informed Pan Africanist political organizations the role of African American and Caribbean intellectuals in the formation of Pan African thought including W E B DuBois C L R James and Adelaide Casely Hayford the historical ideological and institutional connections between African Americans and South Africans and the problems and prospects of Pan Africanism as an emancipatory strategy for black people throughout the Atlantic Racializing Class, Classifying Race P. Alexander, R. Halpern, 1999-12-14 The ten essays in this book explore the intersection of race and class in the study of labour on three continents Leading scholars examine the way in which working class identities took shape and changed over time in a variety of settings from the sea ports of southern Africa to the copper mining region of the American Southwest Homelandings Rahul K. Gairola, 2016-09-21 Homelandings is a critical exploration of the ways that postcolonial diasporas challenge exclusive formulations of home and homeland based on racist and heteronormative assumptions It critically engages with Foucault s notions of biopolitics and governmentality as a conjoined technology of governance in the era of neoliberal capitalism ushered into the global economy from the late 1970s Drawing on texts produced by diasporic people in the UK and USA whose work resists and re appropriates exclusive home sites produced by trends of Anglo American neoliberalism it exposes entrenched discourses of exclusion rooted in race class and sexuality In doing so it offers an urgent intervention for students and scholars of cultural studies postcolonial studies Anglophone literature comparative literature Race and Ethnicity studies and Queer studies South Asian Resistances in Britain, 1858 - 1947 Sumita Mukherjee, Rehana Ahmed, 2011-12-22 This volume offers an alternative way of conceiving the history of Britain by excavating and exploring the numerous ways in which South Asians in Britain engaged in radical discourse and political activism from 1858 to 1947 before their more permanent migration and settlement The book focuses on a tumultuous period of resistance against the backdrop of high imperialism under the reign of Victoria through the turmoil of two World Wars and Partition in 1947 As well as addressing resistances against empire and hierarchies of race the authors investigate how South Asians in Britain mobilized to campaign for women s suffrage the Indian princess Sophia Duleep Singh for example or for an international socialism the Communist MP Shapurji Saklatvala thereby contributing to and complicating notions of freedom equality and justice This volume reframes these pioneers as social and political agents and activists and shows how Britain s contemporary multicultural society is rooted in their mobilization for equality of citizenship Communities of Resistance A. Sivanandan,2019-11-12

There is no socialism after liberation socialism is the process through which liberation is won Each of the essays in Communities of Resistance acts as a critical reaffirmation of socialist politics as the context for questions of race and resistance The left itself is under scrutiny here from a black perspective A series of powerful interventions covers many of the issues which have confronted radical politics in the 1980s inner city uprisings the demand for black sections in the Labour Party local government anti racism the move to a common European market This collection included incisive critiques of contemporary Marxism All that Melts into Air is Solid The Hokum of New Times of post colonial development and of the Eurocentric assessment of imperialism Black Handsworth Kieran Connell,2019-02-12

In 1980s Britain while the country failed to reckon with the legacies of its empire a black transnational sensibility was emerging in its urban areas In Handsworth an inner city neighborhood of Birmingham black residents looked across the Atlantic toward African and Afro Caribbean social and political cultures and drew upon them while navigating the inequalities of their locale For those of the Windrush generation and their British born children this diasporic inheritance became a core influence on cultural and political life Through rich case studies including photographic representations of the neighborhood Black Handsworth takes readers inside pubs churches political organizations domestic spaces and social clubs to shed light on the experiences and everyday lives of black residents during this time The result is a compelling and sophisticated study of black globality in the making of post colonial Britain British Asian Fiction Neil Murphy,Wai-chew Sim,2008

In this outstanding collection of essays editors Neil Murphy and Wai chew Sim seek not so much to demarcate the field of British Asian fiction but to offer due acknowledgment of the artistic merit of the works of selected authors and simultaneously register their cultural significance This volume demonstrates in situ the virtues of commentary that engages in a substantial manner with formal and aesthetic considerations even as it implicates the discourses of alterity that dominate contemporary cultural criticism Additionally the essays delineate the complex subject positions explored by authors and texts and focus on the way writers negotiate the exigencies of their location within and between different social formations If it is the case that British literature can no longer be discussed in monocultural terms because of the impact of the writers under consideration it is also the case that the diverse trans cultural positions they explore are often less specified than proclaimed Addressing difference commensurability and form related notions of truth content these essays enlarge our understanding of the range of British and affiliated identities as well as the cultural contexts from which they arose Working as academics and critics from Singapore a useful vantage point Murphy and Sim have extended the parameters of British Asian to include not just writers from South Asia as is traditionally the case but writers whose parents or who themselves have migrated to Britain from other regions of Asia for example Japan Hong Kong and Malaysia This initiative has made it possible for professors Murphy and Sim to bring together first an interestingly varied group of authors among them those who came to prominence in the 1980s Salman Rushdie Timothy Mo Kazuo Ishiguro as well as their younger contemporaries Meera Syal Romesh Gunesekera Monica Ali Hari Kunzru Ooi Yang May and second a broad and diverse range of novels that span Timothy Mo's Sour Sweet 1982 and Tariq Ali's A Sultan in Palermo 2005 the fourth volume in his Islam quintet Reference Library of Black America Harry A. Ploski, James De Bois Williams, 1990 Presents information on all aspects of Afro American life including politics employment and income education religion literature performing arts science and medicine and sports Policing
