Difficult Past Uncertain Future Living:

The Best of Hard Times Gustavo Barbosa, 2022-01-19 The Best of Hard Times explores the gendered identities of two generations of men in the Shatila Palestinian refugee camp in Beirut Gustavo Barbosa compares the fida iyyin the men who served as freedom fighters to reconquer Palestine in the 1970s to the shabab their sons who lead seemingly mundane lives with limited access to power While the fida iyyinn displayed their masculinity through active resistance and fighting to return to their homeland the shabab have a more nuanced relationship to Palestine and articulate their gender belonging in alternative ways Through vivid ethnographic stories Barbosa critically engages with certain trends in feminism calling attention to their limits and considering nimble views on gender Instead of presenting the shabab as emasculated or experiencing a crisis of masculinity the book shows the pliability of masculinity in time and space and argues that gender has limited purchase to capture the experiences of today's youth from Shatila Based on two years of fieldwork The Best of Hard Times answers the burgeoning demand for anthropological literature on Arab masculinities and portrays refugees as inventive actors rather than agentless victims of circumstances beyond their control The Best of Hard Times is a tour de force combining highbrow theory with gripping ethnography challenging many of the stereotypes on gender power statehood and the role of Islam in the Middle East

Hybrid Political Order and the Politics of Uncertainty Nora Stel, 2020-06-04 Lebanon hosts the highest number of refugees per capita worldwide and is central to European policies of outsourcing migration management Hybrid Political Order and the Politics of Uncertainty is the first book to critically and comprehensively explore the parallels between the country's engagement with the recent Syrian refugee influx and the more protracted Palestinian presence Drawing on fieldwork qualitative case studies and critical policy analysis it questions the dominant idea that the haphazardness inconsistency and fragmentation of refugee governance are only the result of forced displacement or host state fragility and the related capacity problems It demonstrates that the endemic ambiguity that determines refugee governance also results from a lack of political will to create coherent and comprehensive rules of engagement to address refugee crises Building on emerging literatures in the fields of critical refugee studies hybrid governance and ignorance studies it proposes an innovative conceptual framework to capture the spatial temporal and procedural dimensions of the uncertainty that refugees face and to tease out the strategic components of the reproduction and extension of such informality liminality and exceptionalism In developing the notion of a politics of uncertainty ambiguity is explored as a component of a governmentality that enables the control exploitation and expulsion of refugees Introduction Chapter of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
