Dilemma Of Narcissus:

The Dilemma of Narcissus Louis Lavelle, 1973 The Dilemma of Narcissus. Translated From the French With Introd. and Notes by W.T. Gairdner Louis Lavelle, 1973 The Error of Narcissus Louis Lavelle, In The Error of Narcissus Louis Lavelle 1883 1951 presents a philosophical meditation on the myth of Narcissus He argues that self realization far from being a self centered admiration requires not turning against oneself but acting and reaching out to others In this book Lavelle explores the concept of self For Lavelle the self is movement becoming overcoming anxiety and freedom Based on the hero from Ovid's story who was fascinated by his own image in water he shows in brief meditations that the self is threatened with death if it remains fixed on itself on an object and in the past What is most secret in the self can only be understood in its relationship with others in the reception of other subjectivities Self consciousness must then be found to liberate the soul and access the spiritual space Louis Lavelle was for a long time unjustly forgotten Today rediscovered the importance of his work seems perfectly suited to what we are living Lavelle includes human sciences psychoanalysis and anthropology in an essay that reveals him as one of the great metaphysicians of the last century Reading Cy Twombly Mary Jacobus, 2016-08-16 Cover Title Copyright Contents PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS INTRODUCTION TWOMBLY'S BOOKS 1 MEDITERRANEAN PASSAGES RETROSPECT 2 PSYCHOGRAM AND PARNASSUS HOW NOT TO READ A TWOMBLY 3 TWOMBLY'S VAGUENESS THE POETICS OF ABSTRACTION 4 ACHILLES HORSES TWOMBLY'S WAR 5 ROMANTIC TWOMBLY 6 THE PASTORAL STAIN 7 PSYCHE THE DOUBLE DOOR 8 TWOMBLY'S LAPSE POSTSCRIPT WRITING IN LIGHT NOTES BIBLIOGRAPHY INDEX Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals Jennifer L. Shaw, 2017-07-05 The first monograph on a Surrealist cult classic Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals offers a comprehensive account of Cahun's most important published work Aveux non avenues Disavowals 1930 Jennifer L Shaw provides an encompassing interpretation of this groundbreaking work paying careful attention to the complex interrelationship between the photomontages and writings of Aveux non avenues This study argues that the texts and images of Aveux non avenues not only explore Cahun's own subjectivity they formulate a trenchant social and cultural critique Shaw explores how Cahun's work both calls into question the dominant culture of interwar France with its traditional gender roles religious conservatism and pronatalism and takes to task the era's artistic avant garde and in particular its models of desire This volume cuts across the disciplinary boundaries of interwar art studies demonstrating how one artist's personal exploration intervened in wider contemporary debates about the purpose of art the role of women in French culture and the status of homosexuality in the aftermath of World War I From Song to Book Sylvia Huot, 2019-05-15 As the visual representation of an essentially oral text Sylvia Huot points out the medieval illuminated manuscript has a theatrical performative quality She perceives the tension between implied oral performance and real visual artifact as a fundamental aspect of thirteenth and fourteenth century poetics In this generously illustrated volume Huot examines manuscript texts both from the performance oriented lyric tradition of chanson courtoise or courtly love lyric and from the self consciously literary tradition of Old French narrative poetry She demonstrates that the evolution of the lyrical romance and dit narrative poems which incorporate thematic and rhetorical elements of the lyric was responsible for a progressive redefinition of lyric poetry as a written medium and the emergence of an explicitly written literary tradition uniting lyric and narrative poetics Huot first investigates the nature of the vernacular book in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries analyzing organization page layout rubrication and illumination in a series of manuscripts She then describes the relationship between poetics and manuscript format in specific texts including works by widely read medieval authors such as Guillaume de Lorris Jean de Meun and Guillaume de Machaut as well as by lesser known writers including Nicole de Margival and Watriquet de Couvin Huot focuses on the writers characteristic modifications of lyric poetics their use of writing and performance as theme their treatment of the poet as singer or writer and of the lady as implied reader or listener and the ways in which these features of the text were elaborated by scribes and illuminators Her readings reveal how medieval poets and book makers conceived their common project and how they distinguished their respective roles

Unwording the World Carla Locatelli, 1990 This comprehensive study of Beckett's art proposes a doubly contextualized reading of his later works Carla Locatelli reads late Beckett through his previous writings and relates them to the literary philosophical and critical community which surrounds him To appreciate his contribution as an epistemological rhetorician she proposes a multidisciplinary approach that draws upon a remarkably wide range of theorists including Kierkegaard Husserl Heidegger Peirce Jakobson Deleuze Lacan and Derrida In Part One of this study Locatelli traces the evolution of Beckett's writing proposing that his principal concern devolves more and more upon the essential character of representation and its role in the constitution and signification of the subject Part One also provides a history of this thematic showing how Beckett's writing effects a radical displacement of representation from function to object of discourse In Part Two Locatelli focuses on Beckett's fiction after the Nobel Prize of 1969 and on the epistemological and aesthetic issues in Company 1980 Ill Seen, Ill Said 1981 and Worstward Ho 1983 She examines his unwording in this Second Trilogy and defines it as a process of subtraction that probes into the most basic mode of our being in the world Here Beckett proposes as Locatelli suggests a very real hermeneutics of experience beyond the schools of suspicion which are still influencing some postmodernist thinking This volume will be of particular value to scholars and students of twentieth century English literature French literature and literary theory

New Approaches to the Study of Religion: Regional, critical, and historical approaches Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi Ruth Warne, 2004 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984-85 New

Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches

Transformation of Rage Peggy Fitzhugh Johnstone,1994-10-01 George Eliot has been widely praised both for the richness of her prose and the universality of her themes In this compelling study Peggy Fitzhugh Johnstone goes beyond these traditional foci to examine the role of aggression in Eliot s fiction and to find its source in the author s unconscious sense of loss stemming from traumatic family separations and deaths during her childhood and adolescence Johnstone demonstrates that Eliot s creative work was a constructive response to her sense of loss and that the repeating patterns in her novels reflect the process of release from her state of mourning for lost loved ones
