Dimanches Daout:

Registers of the Births, Marriages, and Deaths of the "Eglise Françoise À la Nouvelle York," French Church du Saint Esprit (New York, N.Y.), 1968 Of the several Huguenot establishments founded in the United States that of New York is the first in date and in most respects the first in importance The records in this work comprise the existing baptismal marriage and death records of the French Church of New York from 1688 to 1804 together with a few other records belonging to the New Rochelle Annex Although the records have not been translated into English the language of the entries is so simple that even those who do not read French can easily understand it The records of the church cover the important period of immigration after the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685 An extensive index contains every name in the records including maiden names of the brides and names of witnesses sponsors parents and pastors This reprint is excerpted from Collections of the Huguenot Society of America Volume 1 1886 Present Pasts Dervila Cooke, 2005 This is the first in depth study of the twelve Modiano texts specifically concerned with life writing in autobiographical and biographical cum historiographical projects The texts covered range from La Place de la Toile 1968 through to La Petite Bijou 2001 Close textual analysis is combined with a theoretical approach based on current thinking in autobiography biography and reader response Modiano's use of autofiction and biofiction is analysed in the light of his continuing obsession with both personal trauma and History as well as his problematic relationship with his paternally inherited Jewish links His view of identity of self and other is thus discussed in relation to a particular literary and socio historical context French postmodern post World War II and post Holocaust

Collections of the Huguenot Society of America Huguenot Society of America, 1886 Karl Popper and Literary Theory Thomas Trzyna, 2017-01-05 Karl Popper's philosophy of science with its focus on falsifiability and critical rationalism provides a firm foundation for a theory of literary interpretation that avoids the pitfalls of many contemporary theories Building on the work of Popper John Eccles Imre Lakatos Ernst Gombrich Louise DeSalvo and James Battersby this study outlines the approach sets it in a theoretical context and applies the theory to challenging works by Anne Finch Countess of Winchelsea Jean Toomer Shakespeare Henry Fielding J M G LeClézio J M Coetzee Jonathan Littell Patrick Modiano Albert Schweitzer Popper's protégé William Warren Bartley III and the Gospel of Mark The book concludes with a set of general principles for understanding literature as a mode of investigation in what Popper called the unended quest
