OBSERVATION.

For the MASSACHUSETTS SPY.
Mr. THOMAS,
You are requested to publish the following Address of the Africans, to the Council and house of Representatives.
To the honourable his Majesty's Council and the honourable House of Representatives of the Province of Massachusetts Bay, in General Court assembled, at Boston, the sixth day of January, 1774.

THE many steadfast resolutions made by this large province, to maintain their liberties and privileges, when with God hath made them free (without which no man, even the meanest of them can be happy in this life, for what is life without the enjoyment of it?) gives us who are un-happily, and unjustly deprived of that blessing, so great expectations of your taking up our last petition which we did before your Honours the last sessions; and give us the thousands of poor unhappy Africans their freedom, which we as men, and by nature have a right to demand of your Honours in such a way, and in such a manner as your Honours would expect from such a body of se lowmen, professing the gospel of our Lord and Saviour JESUS CHRIST; we ask nothing from your Honours but what you would desire yourselves, were you in our situation: Nay even the very dumb beasts groan under the heavy load of slavery, and try all manner of ways to get rid of it; much more men who are made after the image of God, and have the sense of feeling cannot but groan under this unjust burden laid upon us without any colour of justice, but pleasure and custom, and against the wills or consents of our forefathers, or us their children: But since the all-wise God hath seen fit to permit it to be so for a number of years past, his will be done we desire to submit to his will in all things; yet from the first settling of this province it was not so. But yet we can sincerely hope and pray, that God would preserve your liberties and privileges as at the beginning, and that peace and love may again be restored between the mother country and the provinces, and that his Majesty would hear your prayers, and that you would hear ours, and grant us an answer of peace, that we may rejoice when you rejoice, and well as mourn when you mourn, as we do this day; and as we are not void of fellow-feelings, we conclude we must be men.

For the MASSACHUSETTS SPY.
