1910s Scrapbook:

The 1910s Scrapbook Robert Opie, 2009 History The English Trip of 1910 Mima Brown Kapches, 2024-10-16 The year 1910 saw the 50th anniversary of the Queen's Own Rifles Canada's longest serving reserve regiment To celebrate this landmark a series of events military parades and spectacular historical pageants featuring hundreds of participants were held in Toronto all of which were bankrolled by financier and Commanding Officer of the QOR Sir Henry Pellatt better known to Canadians as the man who built Toronto's Casa Loma as a private residence for his family The highlight of the jubilee celebrations was Pellatt's sponsorship of a trip to the UK for more than 600 young reservists to train in military manoeuvres with the British Army for four weeks including a week's vacation The group was accompanied by reporters known as the Press Gang from six Toronto newspapers Author Mima Brown Kapches father J N M Jim Brown was one such reporter When researching her father's journalism career Brown Kapches came across an article filed by her father in Toronto World about the trip Surprised to discover that there was little comprehensive documentation of this fascinating bit of Canadian history she set about painstakingly reconstructing the trip primarily through newspaper accounts written by her father and his fellow journalists The English Trip of 1910 Toronto Sir Henry Pellatt the Queen's Own Rifles and the Press Gang is a meticulously researched and eloquently written account of the English excursion Extreme Collecting Graeme Were, J. C. H. King, 2012-03-01 By exploring the processes of collecting which challenge the bounds of normally acceptable practice this book debates the practice of collecting difficult objects from a historical and contemporary perspective and discusses the acquisition of objects related to war and genocide and those purchased from the internet as well as considering human remains mass produced objects and illicitly traded antiquities The aim is to apply a critical approach to the rigidity of museums in maintaining essentially nineteenth century ideas of collecting and to move towards identifying priorities for collection policies in museums which are inclusive of acquiring difficult objects Much of the book engages with the question of the limits to the practice of collecting as a means to think through the implementation of new strategies Geraldine Farrar Elizabeth Nash, 2012-09-13 From 1906 until 1922 Geraldine Farrar was the Metropolitan Opera's most popular and glamorous prima donna Convinced that music must always serve the drama she often sacrificed tonal beauty to dramatic effect and her acting was noted for its intensity and realism Nevertheless Farrar was a superb singer possessing a beautiful lyric soprano voice Farrar was also a star of the silent screen appearing in 14 films from 1915 to 1920 In retirement she was mentor and friend to the African American soprano Camilla Williams enabling Williams to become the first African American to have a regular contract with a major American opera company This biography and critical analysis of Farrar's career provides a detailed account of her major contributions to the history of opera The Numismatic Scrapbook Magazine, 1951 Handbook of the Alabama Conference Historical Society, M.E. theatrical history The Irish Press Numismatic Scrapbook, 1957 Boston Priests, 1848-1910 Donna Merwick, 1973 Donna Merwick rejects the usual assumption that Boston Catholicism is definitively Irish Catholicism In her penetrating study of three distinct generations of Boston priests in the late nineteenth century the author shows that Irish Catholicism met with steady opposition Her account of the struggle of Boston clerics and intellectuals to relate their faith to their experiences in the changing city provides a new interpretation of Boston Catholic culture In the 1840s Catholic influence in Boston was minimal and therefore accepted The clergy like other Bostonians took pride in the city's history and colonial traditions In measuring the impact of the massive Irish Catholic immigration of the 1850s upon this first group of priests the author traces in part the desperate efforts of Archbishop John J Williams to maintain Boston's genteel traditions The character of the clergy changed from the first generation in which priests wrote novels and radical editorials to a second generation in which the influence of European Catholicism was strengthened Immigrant priests and their Irish parishioners eventually outnumbered the Yankee Catholics but they nevertheless failed to win genuine leadership in the diocese A third group of priests emerging in the 1890s under the leadership of Cardinal William O Connell displaced not only two generations of clergymen but also two ways of life one which sought to leave a legacy of admiration for the Boston Protestant heritage and one which never understood Boston and tried to replace its cultural ways with something Irish European and Jansenistic O Connell who had the Progressive's instinct for organization imposed a kind of intellectual martial law on the clergy which discouraged even punished nonconformity It is only at this point that it becomes reasonable to consider the traditional view that Boston Catholic thought is monolithic Lord Linoleum P. J. Gooderson, 1996 The Book of
