Records of the Easter Rising Brian Barton,2010-03-23 Until 1999 official British records of the fifteen trials that followed the Easter Rising of 1916 were kept a close secret Further material released in 2001 included the trial of Countess Markievicz and important evidence about the shoot to kill tactics used by the British Army These records the subject of Ann Matthews,2014-09-05 The Irish Citizen Army was originally established as a defence corps during the 1913 Lockout but under the leadership of James Connolly its aims became more Republican and the IRB fearing Connolly would pre empt their plans for the Easter Rising convinced him to join his force with the Irish Volunteers During the Rising the ICA was active in three garrisons and the book describes for the first time in depth its involvement at St Stephen s Green and the Royal College of Surgeons at City Hall and its environs and using the first hand account of journalist J J O Leary who was on the scene in the battle around the GPO The author questions the much vaunted myth of the equality of men and women in the ICA and scrutinises the credentials of Larkin and Connolly as champions of both sexes She also asserts that the Proclamation was not read by Patrick Pearse from the steps of the GPO but by Tom Clarke from Nelson s Pillar She provides sources to suggest that the Proclamation was not as has always been believed printed in Liberty Hall and that the final headquarters of the rebels was not at number 16 Moore Street but somewhere between numbers 21 and 26
