Grace Halsell

1980s Countdown:

Arguing the Apocalypse Stephen D. O'Leary, 1998-08-20 Apocalyptic expectations of Armageddon and a New Age have been a fixture of the American cultural landscape for centuries With the approach of the year 2000 such millennial visions seem once again to be increasing in popularity Stephen O Leary sheds new light on the age old phenomenon of the End of the Age by proposing a rhetorical explanation for the appeal of millennialism Using examples of apocalyptic argument from ancient to modern times O Leary identifies the recurring patterns in apocalyptic texts and movements and shows how and why the Christian Apocalypse has been used to support a variety of political stances and programs The book concludes with a critical review of the recent appearances of doomsday scenarios in our politics and culture and a meditation on the significance of the Apocalypse in the nuclear age Arguing the Apocalypse is the most thorough examination of its subject to date a study of a neglected chapter of our religious and cultural history a guide to the politics of Armageddon and a map of millennial consciousness

Stalking the Antichrists (1965-2012) Volume 2 George E. Lowe, 2013-12-16 Volume 1 of Stalking the Antichrists and Their False Nuclear Prophets Nuclear Gladiators and Spirit Warriors 1940-1965 is essentially an enhanced memoir It is based for the most part on my personal observations and knowledge and specialized information from my academic studies of history political science and literature at Grove City College and the University of Chicago as well as my professional insights into the heart of the U S Navy 1953-1957 1960-1961 OP 09D as an Air Intelligence Officer in Hawaii and Japan and the Pentagon political military counsellor assignments in the State Department as a Foreign Service Officer FSO 6 at the American embassy in Paris 1962-64 and a speechwriter in the Navy Department 1965 In volume 2 the textual narrative begins with the end of my specific actions activities in the Navy and Foreign Service in July 1965 which I have called How I Lived in History 1950-1965 In retrospect my entire Navy career from my commissioning as Ensign USNR 1355 AIO in early September 1953 at Naval Station Newport Rhode Island to my first honorable discharge at Treasure Island on August 27 1957 was in preparation to an understanding of World War II and the Cold War

Looking at the Eighties Sally Stockbridge, 1994

Children of Ezekiel Michael Lieb, 1998 Discusses the relationship between the biblical prophet Ezekiel's vision of wheels in the air and the present day end of time concept as seen in various religious sects

Re-living the Eighties Traci L. Anderson, 1998

Contemporary Apocalyptic Rhetoric Barry Brummett, 1991-11-30 Intellectuals today cringe when a politician speaks of the Second Coming the millennium or the Antichrist Certain questions naturally arise about those who literally expect the end of the world in our day Why do they think this Why do some people believe them How do their exhortations work to persuade an audience and to move that audience to actions and commitments These are the motivating questions of Contemporary Apocalyptic Rhetoric which describes apocalyptic as a rhetorical genre of discourse Barry Brummett first recasts insights drawn from past scholarly and theological studies to demonstrate their relevance to contemporary apocalyptic then examines a variety of real apocalyptic to illustrate the ways in which these rhetorical discourses actually work The discussion focuses on those strategies arguments and stylistic features that are peculiar to apocalyptic and that support its social and political claims Following an introductory first chapter Chapter Two describes how apocalyptic rhetoric links a psychological context to an esoteric grand order underlying all of time and the cosmos Chapter Three compares premillennial and postmillennial apocalyptic on three dimensions to show the different approaches they take to reach their audiences Chapter Four describes specific rhetorical techniques designed to maintain a mystic persona and urge social and political commitments on audiences The final two chapters apply the author s theories to secular and religious apocalyptic both premillennial Hal Lindsey and Ravi Batra and postmillennial Francis Fukuyama Contemporary Apocalyptic Rhetoric will appeal to readers across many disciplines including communications religion sociology and psychology

Antichrist Bernard McGinn,1994 In this survey of the history of the Antichrist Bernard McGinn presents

the Christian origins of the Antichrist legend but pays particularly close attention to how it plays in the popular imagination

Going by the Book Ernie Bringas, 1995-10 Are biblical and other sacred scriptures the divine word of God to be followed as the ultimate authority Bringas asserts that we are victims of a knowledge gap creating a religious understanding more appropriate to the seventeenth century In other fields scholarship and new discoveries gradually modify and expand old beliefs yet scripture continues to be an unquestioned source of truth An unflinching and objective look at faith devotion and the politics of belief

The Hero in Transition Ray Broadus Browne, Marshall William Fishwick, 1983 An investigation of society's heroes during any time period will reveal the personnel deemed worthy of being emulated at that particular time by that particular society There will be many old and time tested figures sometimes with new faces and new profiles there will also be a mix of new faces Thus the hero like history itself is constantly in transition and both the hero and the transition are fundamental to the study of a culture These essays turn the pantheon of heroes around before our eyes and reveal the many complicated aspects of hero worship

The Cost of Deception John Williams, 2001 The author contends that religious modern day hoaxes erode the credibility of Christians in a world where Christian influence is being met by increasing skepticism He dispels many of the common urban legends and myths popular with Christians as well as other issues

The Bible and Zionism Nur Masalha, 2007-08-01 Does the bible justify Zionism Since the foundation of the Israeli state in 1948 Torah and tank have become increasingly inseparable resulting in the forced expulsion and subjugation of millions of indigenous Palestinians Nur Masalha's groundbreaking new book traces Zionism's evolution from a secular settler movement in the late 19th century to the messianic faith it has become today He shows how the biblical language of chosen people and promised land has been used by many Christian and Jewish Zionists as the title deeds for Israel justifying ethnic division and violence With Edward Said Masalha argues that a new politics of peace can only be achieved through a single democratic state which replaces religious zealotry with secular equality

Awaiting the Millennium Richard G. Kyle, 1998 The Last Days Are Here Again serves as a comprehensive source regarding movements related to the end times This handy guide also examines ideas espoused by fringe groups such as the Heaven's Gate cult and shows how end time thinking has been adapted to fit nearly
