Boys Cool Stuff:

Boys and Schooling in the Early Years Paul Connolly, 2004-06-11 Boys underachievement in education has now become a global concern taxing the minds of governments across the Western world Boys and Schooling in the Early Years represents the first major study of its kind to focus specifically on young boys and achievement It makes a powerful argument for the need to begin tackling the problem of boys lower educational performance in the early years This book includes one of the most detailed and up to date analyses of national evidence regarding gender differences in educational achievement from the early years through to the end of compulsory schooling Together with original and in depth case studies that vividly capture the differing experiences and perspectives of 5 6 year old boys the book sets out the nature of the problems facing them in education and highlights a number of practical ways in which these issues can begin to be addressed This is essential reading for all those working in the early years who are concerned about boys lower levels of achievement and want to know what they can do about it

Into the River Ted Dawe, 2013-10-18 A gripping gritty and award winning coming of age novel for young adult readers When Te Arepa Santos is dragged into the river by a giant eel something happens that will change the course of his whole life The boy who struggles to the bank is not the same one who plunged in moments earlier He has brushed against the spirit world and there is a price to be paid an utu revenge to be exacted Years later far from the protection of whanau family and ancestral land he finds new enemies This time with no one to save him there is a decision to be made he can wait on the bank or leap forward into the river At the 2013 NZ Post Childrens Book Awards Into the River was judged the Margaret Mahy Book of the Year It also won the Young Adult Fiction category of the awards An engaging coming of age novel it follows its main protagonist from his childhood in small town rural New Zealand to an elite Auckland boarding school where he must forge his own way including battling with his cultural identity This prequel to Ted Dawe s award winning novel Thunder Road is gritty provocative at times shocking but always real and true The awards chief judge Bernard Beckett described a character caught between two worlds the explicit content was presented as the danger of people being left adrift by society And within that context hard hitting material is crucial it is what makes the book authentic real and important The Deputy Chief Censor of Film and Literature ruled that the book is not offensive The book deals with some stronger content There are sexual relationships between teenagers encounters with possible child sexual exploitation the use of illegal drugs and other criminal activities violent assault and a moderate level of highly offensive language These are well contextualised within an exciting fast moving narrative that has as its protagonist a young teenage Maori boy from a rural community who is finding his way through the strange uncomfortable environment of a boys boarding school and unfamiliar social mores The story captures the raw and real extremes of adolescence in teenage boys along with their yearnings and obsessions The book is notable for being one of the first in the New Zealand which specifically targets teenage boys and younger men a genre that does not have great representation The genre character is therefore significant The content immerses the reader in action wit and intrigue as well as a level of social realism all likely to engage teen and young adult readers and with particular appeal for older boys and young men
