Machado de Assis Kenneth David Jackson, 2015-01-01 Novelist poet playwright and short story writer Joaquim Maria Machado de Assis 1839 1908 is widely regarded as Brazil's greatest writer although his work is still too little read outside his native country In this first comprehensive English language examination of Machado since Helen Caldwell's seminal 1970 study K David Jackson reveals Machado de Assis as an important world author one of the inventors of literary modernism whose writings profoundly influenced some of the most celebrated authors of the twentieth century including Jos Saramago Carlos Fuentes and Donald Barthelme Jackson introduces a hitherto unknown Machado de Assis to readers illuminating the remarkable life work and legacy of the genius whom Susan Sontag called the greatest writer ever produced in Latin America and whom Allen Ginsberg hailed as another Kafka Philip Roth has said of him that like Beckett he is ironic about suffering And Harold Bloom has remarked of Machado that he's funny as hell Black Art in Brazil Kimberly L. Cleveland, 2013-07-09 Kimberly Cleveland highlights the work of five Brazilian artists from all over the country who work in a wide range of media including photography sculpture and installation art She shows how each conveys blackness through his or her unique visual vocabulary and points out the ways this reflects their lived experiences Ilê Aiyê in Brazil and the Reinvention of Africa Niyi Afolabi, 2016-05-01 Ilê Aiyê's unifying identity politics through Afro-Carnival performance is embedded in its dialectical relationship with the rest of Brazil as it takes ownership of its oppressed status by striving for racial equality and economic empowerment Against this complex background performative theory offers significant new meanings In ritualistically integrating Bakhtinian categories of free interaction eccentric behavior carnivalistic misalliances and the sacrilegious Ilê Aiyê anchors its social discourse on showcasing the black race as a critical agency of beauty pride wisdom subversion and negotiation Ilê Aiyê carnival is not only racially conscious it heightens the conflicts by dislocating the very establishment that invests in its cultural politics In fusing the sacred the profane the performative the musical with the political Ilê Aiyê succeeds in indicting racism ironically sacrificing the very power it pursues Despite these limitations Ilê Aiyê creatively engages alternative dialogues on Brazilian politics through sponsored performances across transnational borders Tales That Touch Bettina Brandt, Yasemin Yildiz, 2022-09-20 Cultural texts born out of migration frequently defy easy categorization as they cross borders languages histories and media in unpredictable ways Instead of corralling them into identity categories whether German or otherwise the essays in this volume building on the influential work of Leslie A Adelson interrogate how to respond to their methodological challenge in innovative ways Investigating a wide variety of twentieth and twenty-first century texts that touch upon things German in the broadest sense from print and born digital literature to essay film nature drawings and memorial sites the contributions employ transnational and multilingual lenses to show how these works reframe migration and temporality bringing into view antifascist aesthetics refugee time postmigrant Heimat translational poetics and post-Holocaust affects With new literary texts by Yoko Tawada and Zafer Enocak and essays by Gizem Arslan

Neto, 2013-10-15 Identity From ancient times along with their hair styles fashion and design the African tribes have been identified by a wide range of headwraps we often call turbans On the African continent the color and the manner of tying of a turban might mean a particular tribe or ethnic group or make a statement about the identity and status of the individual In some parts of the diaspora these traditions have been erased with time yet in a few places in the world people of African lineage continue to keep them alive The women of Brazil in the vibrant daily street life the cultural festivals Carnaval and religious manifestations are seen embellishing their unique beauty with headscarves wraps and turbans of every description This work comes to prove with loving attention to detail the breathtaking variety and level of differentiation from one turban to another which represent the true identity and values of the African groups and tribes they inherit Like the DNA of our ancestors these unique ways of wrapping fabric to adorn the head preserve and keep alive today the memories and cultural values passed down to us Brazil in Bloom The women in their colorful headwraps bring the Brazilian landscape alive like a field of flowers in bloom In this land of magic all the colors of the rainbow have a meaning representing the Orixas and all that they evoke and also symbolizing all the people that weave together into a community and a nation The tradition is no matter what your faith we all can get along Here in Brazil we are bringing the African ethnic groups along with all those who lived here before and who came here after together as one people Imagine the energy Brazil Body Soul Brasil Corpo Alma gives a unique look into Brazilian lifestyles cultures and history This is a must for anyone s cultural library and for those whose curiosity and passions are aroused by the Brazilian land and people ABOUT THE AUTHOR Eduardo C Neto is a researcher photographer and writer presenting an informed insider s view of his country and his people in this second volume of his photography Neto's work is a raw and immediate glimpse deep into a culture little known and barely understood by the outside world. It takes an insider's knowledge and access and readiness in the midst of the crowds and the action to catch these impromptu moments whenever and wherever they happen.

ARTS OF BRAZIL Brazil is known for its special spin on the art of living. Brazilian culture shines in this showcase of popular art and expression. The creative art of dressing and adornment takes the forefront here where fashion meets a rich heritage of tradition, magic, and meaning.

PHOTOGRAPHY By following the threads of culture to their deepest sources, Neto's photography preserves an exotic cultural legacy of the African diaspora and brings evocative moments in the Brazilian people's lifestyle to light.

DOCUMENTARY This volume provides some rarely seen visual documentation of a tradition of tying turbans that reaches from ancient Africa to modern Brazil. It takes a deeper look at some aspects of the Brazilian cultural heritage touched on in the author's comprehensive previous book From Brazil to Heaven. The author continues to provide in depth and credible visual and written information about the Brazilian way of life in his books: Opportunity, 1936; The United States of Brazil, Charles William Domville-Fife, 1910; The Civilization of the South American Indians, Rafael Karsten, 1926; Art Papers, 2004; A Brazilian Mystic, Robert Bontine Cunninghame Graham, 1920; Herapath's Railway Magazine, Commercial Journal, and Scientific Review, 1893; The Economist, 1872; Catholic Missions and Annals of the Propagation of the Faith, 1930.
