extraordinarily vivid uncensored immediacy Using only undemonstrative prose and asking for no special sympathy Choukri conveys the experience of struggling to survive in a harsh world of dusty streets and unforgiving sunlight Guardian Five stars Achingly elegant Choukri's irrepressible ultimately indomitable spirit is most touching and human Independent Richly descriptive and engaging an honest and vivid account Definitely an enjoyable and worthwhile read Socialist Review A cult classic Choukri's text has become a staple on the syllabi of modern Arabic comparative literature and post colonial studies programs Daily Star The most poetic exploration of that world of vice coffee conversation and intrigue One of the most widely read modernist novels in the Arab world Outsideleft.com Bread Alone Judi Hendricks,2001 Thirty one year old Wyn short for Wynter Morrison has drifted into the role of trophy wife largely to please her husband David whom she loves But what does a trophy wife do when suddenly and rudely she is told that her services are no longer required Wyn desperately unhappy and with no marketable skills other than a stint as a baker in France as a student moves from California to rainy Seattle where her best friend lives There she gets a job baking bread on the night shift and rents a temporary lodging At first she's going through the motions of living her strange existence clocking into the bakery at 11 30 each night working till 7 and sleeping the day away But gradually she beds herself in makes friends transforms her little house from a bleak rental to a home rediscovers her calling as a baker and in her halting attempts to build a new life she opens herself up to the possibility of loving and being loved again This novel is perfectly judged There is real pain but always leavened with humour The baking healing analogy is lightly done There is no easy solution to life after David Wyn must struggle back up the hard way relying on her own strength of character though it takes her a while to recognise that she has any The final plus is that Hendricks writing is a joy to read sensuous lyrical and true By Bread Alone I. Bread Alone" Sophie Duhnkrack, 2010-01-13 Thesis M A from the year 2009 in the subject Orientalism Sinology Arabistic grade 90 Ben Gurion University course Arabic Literature language English abstract In 1973 the English translation For Bread Alone of Mohamed Choukri s Al Khubz Al Hafi was published This first part of Choukri s extraordinary autobiography is written in a very simplistic style which Paul Bowles the translator of For Bread Alone also described as a technique Choukri s narration is the work of an illiterate who has not yet learned to classify what goes into his memory 5 The novel illustrates the protagonist s struggle to survive under exceptionally difficult circumstances namely extreme poverty and violence Indeed Mohamed Choukri states that all my life has been a response to one challenge after the other The novel is constructed as a rihla journey both an earlier external one of physical movement and a later one which this paper will describe as internal First this paper will explore the external journey which leads the protagonist Mohamed to different cities and places and it will analyze the language structure and content which express this travel this first journey is dominated by his family whose relationship with Mohamed is also central to this study Furthermore it will examine the transition from this journey to the internal one by means of the content and the structure of the text The internal rihla which prevails in the second part of the novel and which the paper will address by means of the text s language and content obviously is not separate from the external journey since the story is about the development of one and the same person The second journey that describes his existence as a teenager replaces the first physical one lived as a child However this paper will divide the two rihlas in order to carve out its differences and to show Mohamed s development which eventually leads to his emancipation through literacy Finally the paper will address some personal impressions and remarks on the novel
