Bread Not Stone Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza,2014 Bread Not Stone Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza,1990 Bread Not Stone Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza,1990-01 From Women's Experience to Feminist Theology Linda Hogan,2016-10-06 What are the implications of adopting a primacy of praxis position in feminist theology How can we respect the diversity of women s experience while retaining it as a useful analytic category Do these twin resources of women s experience and praxis together imply that feminist theology is ultimately relativist Through an analysis of the work of some of today s key feminist theologians Christian womanist and post Christian Linda Hogan considers these and other methodological questions An Introduction to Womanist Biblical Interpretation Nyasha Junior,2015-01-01 An Introduction to Womanist Biblical Interpretation provides a much needed introduction to womanist approaches to biblical interpretation It argues that womanist biblical interpretation is not simply a byproduct of feminist biblical interpretation but part of a distinctive tradition of African American women s engagement with biblical texts While womanist biblical interpretation is relatively new in the development of academic biblical studies African American women are not newcomers to biblical interpretation Written in an accessible style this volume highlights the importance of both the Bible and race in the development of feminism and the emergence of womanism It provides a history of feminist biblical interpretation and discusses the current state of womanist biblical interpretation as well as critical issues related to its development and future Although some African American women identify themselves as womanists the term its usage its features and its connection to feminism remain widely misunderstood This excellent textbook is perfect for helping to introduce readers to the development and applications of womanist biblical interpretation Feminism and Christian Tradition Mary-Paula Walsh,1999-05-30 This annotated bibliography a volume in the Greenwood series Bibliographies and Indexes in Religious Studies provides access to the numerous writings from the 1960s through the 1990s on feminism and Christian tradition Major feminist theologians and sociologists are represented As a guide to further research this cross disciplinary approach presents themes and issues in both a historical and a topical framework An extensive overview of feminism in relation to the

women's movement women's studies sociology and American religion introduces the literature and provides a historical context for the nearly one thousand entries that follow Cross referenced throughout the literature is presented in six thematic categories that include introductory and background materials feminism and the development of feminist theology topical literatures in feminist theology feminism and womanist theology religious leadership of women and responses and recent developments Separate author subject and title indexes complete the volume

The Bible in History David W. Kling, 2022-12-19 Over 15 years after its original publication The Bible in History remains an essential examination of the symbiotic relationship between Scripture and the social and cultural contexts shaping its interpretation David W Kling traces the fascinating story of how specific biblical texts sometimes a single verse other times a selection of verses or chapters even books have at various times emerged to be the inspiration of movements that have changed the course of history Episodes range from Anthony's call to the desert and a life of monasticism after hearing Jesus's directive to the rich young ruler to give up his possessions to the Anabaptists non violent ethic in following Jesus teaching in the Sermon on the Mount to the varied applications of the exodus motif in African American history This revised and expanded second edition adds two new chapters The first examines the text in Matthew 28:18-20 and considers the multitudinous interpretations before during and after the text emerged as the iconic Great Commission of missionary motivation in the modern period The second assesses those biblical texts that encompass the divisive and ongoing issue of male homosexuality Both chapters engage the question of how the texts have shaped the times but as Kling argues the times have also exerted an enormous impact on shaping the interpretation of the texts and hence on the continuing disputes over the meaning of those texts

Feminist Theologies for a Postmodern Church Loraine MacKenzie Shepherd, 2002 Liberal modern approaches to theology have tended to silence voices from the margins This book offers an alternative feminist theological approach that more adequately addresses issues of diversity and marginalization It critically examines and combines aspects of four different feminist approaches Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza's critical modern Mary McClintock Fulkerson's poststructural Kwok Pui-lan's postcolonial and Kathryn Tanner's postliberal This alternative feminist theological approach is then used to examine how a liberal mainstream Protestant denomination has dealt with issues of sexual orientation and gender Particular attention is given to biblical interpretation as shaped by community the role of traditional doctrine assumptions of authority and revelation and communities of accountability

Towards a Feminist Critical Reading of the Gospel According to Matthew Elaine Mary Wainwright, 1991 The series Beihefte zur Zeitschrift für die neutestamentliche Wissenschaft BZNW is one of the oldest and most highly regarded international scholarly book series in the field of New Testament studies Since 1923 it has been a forum for seminal works focusing on Early Christianity and related fields The series is grounded in a historical critical approach and also explores new methodological approaches that advance our understanding of the New Testament and its world
