Theatre for Peacebuilding

Nilanjana Premaratna,2018-05-05 This book contributes to key debates in peacebuilding by exploring the role of theatre and art in general Premaratna argues that the dialogical and multi voiced nature of theatre is particularly suited to assisting societies coming to terms with conflict and opening up possibilities for conversation These are important parts of the peacebuilding process The book engages the conceptual links between theatre and peacebuilding and then offers an in depth empirical exploration of how three South Asian theatre groups approach peacebuilding Jana Karaliya in Sri Lanka Jana Sanskriti in India and Sarwanam in Nepal The ensuing reflections offer insights that are relevant to both students and practitioners concerned with issues of peace and conflict

Time Briton Hadden, Henry R. Luce, 1930 Children's Views on Their Lives and Well-being Gwyther Rees, 2017-08-30 This book presents a comprehensive overview of findings from the Children s Worlds project the most extensive and diverse study to have been conducted globally on children s own views of their lives It provides a unique comparative insight into the similarities and differences in children s lives and well being around the world including findings that challenge prevailing assumptions of where and in what contexts children might experience a good childhood The book draws out the key messages and implications from the study and identifies directions for future work on child well being It will be of interest to researchers and students in the field of childhood studies as well as a wide range of professionals and organisations concerned with improving children s quality of life
