 Genre is how Jessica Salmonsens has described this work Robert Ames Bennet was primarily a writer of Westerns but also wrote two Lost Race romances one of which is Thyra A Romance of the Polar Pit The plot concerns a group of explorers who fly in a balloon to the North Pole where they discover via an opening that the earth is indeed hollow Once inside the earth they encounter Viking and Neanderthal communities along with survivals of Mesozoic megafauna Thyra manages to intertwine the Utopian Lost Race and Lost World subgenres into a single action packed plot which never meanders or digresses The first Viking community upon which the heroes stumble after they enter the bowels of the Earth and where they find the eponymous heroine is an unlikely Christian Socialist Utopia As they penetrate further into the Earth s interior they encounter those Vikings who have given themselves over to idolatry and human sacrifice along with a community of stereotypically aggressive and bestial Neanderthals At the novel s climax they have a perilous close encounter with some demonic prehistoric reptiles in the Hela Pool a particularly well written scene The copy of this work which I obtained is a photocopy of the microfilm of the original 1901 edition which has delightfully quaint illustrations I don t know if they have been reproduced in the Lost Race and Adult Fantasy Fiction series edition Mr Bennet s other Lost Race Romance The Bowl of Baal also combines Lost Race and Lost World motifs and is recommended here Of the two however Thyra is the better
