Debating World Literature:

Debating World Literature Benedict Richard O'Gorman Anderson, 2004 Goethe's Weltliteratur and the cultural forms of globalization

Debating World Literature Christopher Prendergast, 2008-07-01 Starts at Goethe's idea of Weltliteratur from which it then travels to various places at different historical junctures It is concerned with the legacies of Goethe's idea cross cultural encounters variable understandings of the term literature itself the nature of small literatures and the cultural politics of literary genres It seeks to transcend the pieties and simplifications of polemic in search for the complexity embodied in the linking of the two terms world and literature Essays by Stefan Hoesel Uhlig Peter Madsen Emily Apter Timothy J Reiss Franco Moretti Stephen Heath Simon Goldhill Benedict Anderson Nicholas Dew Elisa Sampson Vera Tudela John Sturrock Stanley Corngold Bruce Clunies Ross and Francesca Orsini

Approaches to World Literature Joachim Küpper, 2013-12-20 The present volume introduces new considerations on the topic of World Literature penned by leading representatives of the discipline from the United States India Japan the Middle East England France and Germany The essays revolve around the question of what specifically in today's rapidly globalizing world may be the productive implications of the concept of World Literature which was first developed in the 18th century and then elaborated on by Goethe The discussions include problems such as different script systems with varying literary functions as well as questions addressing the relationship between ethnic self description and cultural belonging The contributions result from a conference that took place at the Dahlem Humanities Center Freie Universität Berlin in 2012

World Literature, Cosmopolitanism, Globality Gesine Müller, Mariano Siskind, 2019-10-21 From today's vantage point it can be denied that the confidence in the abilities of globalism mobility and cosmopolitanism to illuminate cultural signification processes of our time has been severely shaken In the face of this crisis a key concept of this globalizing optimism as World Literature has been for the past twenty years necessarily is in the need of a comprehensive revision World Literature Cosmopolitanism Globality Beyond Against Post Otherwise offers a wide range of contributions approaching the blind spots of the globally oriented Humanities for phenomena that in one way or another have gone beyond the discourses aesthetics and political positions of liberal cosmopolitanism and neoliberal globalization Departing basically but not exclusively from different examples of Latin American literatures and cultures in globalized contexts this volume provides innovative insights into critical readings of World Literature and its related conceptualizations A timely book that embraces highly innovative perspectives it will be a mustread for all scholars involved in the field of the global dimensions of literature

A History of World Literature Theo D'haen, 2024-05-29 A History of World Literature is a fully revised and expanded edition of The Routledge Concise History of World Literature 2012 This remarkably broad and informative book offers an introduction to world literature Tracing the term from its earliest roots and situating it within a number of relevant contexts from postcolonialism decoloniality ecocriticism and book circulation Theo D'haen in ten tightly argued but richly detailed chapters examines the return of the term world literature and its changing meaning Goethe's concept of Weltliteratur and how this relates to current debates theories and theorists who have had an impact on world literature and how world literature is taught around the world By examining how world literature is studied around the globe this book is the ideal guide to an increasingly popular and important term in literary studies It is accessible and engaging and will be invaluable to students of world literature comparative literature translation postcolonial and decoloniality studies and materialist approaches and to anyone with an interest in these or related topics

World Literature as Discovery Zhang Longxi, 2023-09-15 The rise of world literature is the most noticeable phenomenon in literary studies in the twenty first century However truly well known and globally circulating works are all canonical works of European or Western literature while non European and even minor European literatures remain largely unknown beyond their culture of origin World Literature as Discovery Expanding the World Literary Canon argues that world literature for our time must go beyond Eurocentrism and expand the canon to include great works from non European and minor European literatures As much of the world's literature remains untranslated and unknown the expansion will be an exciting process of discovery By discussing fundamental questions around canon circulation aesthetic values translation cosmopolitanism and the literary universal Zhang Longxi proposes a new and liberating concept of world literature that will shape world literature worthy of its name This book speaks for a more inclusive idea of world literature and shows students and scholars alike that all the literary traditions particularly non European traditions will be able to make important contributions and expand the canon of world literature

World Literature Reader Theo D'haen, César Domínguez, Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, 2012-06-01 World Literature is an increasingly influential subject in literary studies which has led to the re framing of contemporary ideas of national literatures language and translation World Literature A Reader brings together thirty essential readings which display the theoretical foundations of the subject as well as showing its conceptual development over a two hundred year period The book features an illuminating introduction to the subject with suggested reading paths to help readers navigate through the materials texts exploring key themes such as globalization cosmopolitanism post trans nationalism and translation and nationalism writings by major figures including J W Goethe Karl Marx Friedrich Engels Longxi Zhao David Damrosch Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Pascale Casanova and Milan Kundera The early explorations of the meaning of Weltliteratur are introduced while twenty first century interpretations by leading scholars today show the latest critical developments in the field The editors offer readers the ideal introduction to the theories and debates surrounding the impact of this crucial area on the modern literary landscape

The Making of Chinese-Sinophone Literatures as World Literature Kuei-fen Chiu, Yingjin Zhang, 2021-12-21 In The Making of Chinese Sinophone Literatures as World Literature Kuei fen Chiu and Yingjin Zhang aim to bridge the distance between the scholarship of world literature and that of Chinese and Sinophone literary studies This edited volume advances research on world literature by bringing in new developments in Chinese Sinophone literatures and adds a much needed new global perspective on Chinese literary studies beyond the traditional national literature paradigm and its recent critique by Sinophone studies In addition to a critical mapping of the domains of world literature Sinophone literature and world literature in Chinese to delineate the nuanced differences of these three disciplines the book addresses the issues of translation genre and the impact of media and technology on our understanding of literature and literary prestige It also provides critical studies of the complicated ways in which Chinese and Sinophone literatures are translated received and reinvested across various genres and media and thus circulate as world literature The issues taken up by the contributors to this volume promise fruitful polemical interventions in the studies of world literature from the vantage point of Chinese and Sinophone literatures An outstanding volume full of insights with chapters by leading scholars from an admirable range of perspectives Chiu and Zhang's The Making of Chinese Sinophone Literatures as World Literature expertly integrates Chinese and Sinophone studies with world literature scholarship opening numerous possibilities for future analyses of literature media and cultural history Karen L Thornber Harvard University This book is at once the best possible introduction to recent debates on world literature from the perspective of Chinese Sinophone literatures and a summa critica that thinks through their transcultural drives global travels varied worldings and translational forces The comparative perspectives gathered here accomplish the necessary and urgent task of reconfiguring both the idea of the world in world literature and the ways we study the inscriptions of Chinese Sinophone literatures in the world Mariano Siskind Harvard University Teaching World Literature David Damrosch, 2009 This is an exciting and unsettling time to be teaching world literature writes David Damrosch Because the range of works taught in world literature courses has expanded enormously both historically and geographically the task of selection and of teacher preparation has grown more challenging Teachers of this field must grapple with such issues as coverage cultural difference and the role of translation in the classroom Should one emphasize masterpieces or traditions concepts or themes How does one avoid making a work bear the burden of representing an entire tradition To what extent should anthologies be used Can a course be global in scope and yet focus on a few works authors moments This collection of thirty two essays in the MLA series Options for Teaching offers an array of solutions to these challenges reflecting the wide variety of institutions courses and students described by the contributors An annotated bibliography is provided with a listing of useful Web sites Masterpieces of Non-Western World Literature Thomas L. Cooksey, 2007-10-30 Contains ten interpretive essays that discuss classical works of non Western world literature including the poetry of Li Po the Epic of Gilgamesh and The Tale of Genji List of Books for School Libraries of the State of Oregon, 1917 The World's Literature Illuminated, 1900 Zainichi Literature John Lie, 2018 A multiple contributor volume on Zainichi literature literary works by ethnic or diasporic Koreans in Japan Includes translations of Japanese language essays stories and poems by seven authors List of Books of School Libraries for the State of Oregon, 1915 Literary History Anders Pettersson, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2006 Literary

History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one's own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic
