Decolonizing Theology A Caribbean Perspective:

Decolonizing Theology Noel Leo Erskine, 1981 This book is a fascinating historical study of the complex nature of Afro Christianity in the Caribbean and the American South This study is an in depth assessment of the Caribbean Church Black Theology Revivalism and Rastafarianism Continuing in the tradition of Vincent Harding Gayraud Wilmore and James Cone Erskine holds that Black Religion embodies visions of liberation that are secular as well as spiritual On the basis of his own experience and research Professor Erskine chronicles the struggle of Black people for freedom against bondage for justice against oppression for identity against anonymity and for full humanity of all persons and communities n Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology Katie G. Cannon, Anthony B. Pinn, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology brings together leading scholars in the field to present a critical and comprehensive analysis of African American Theology in its many forms and contexts providing an interdisciplinary examination of the nature content and meaning of this form of theology Reading Spiritualities Dawn Llewellyn, Deborah F. Sawyer, 2008 The phenomenon of sacred text has undergone radical deconstruction in recent times reflecting how religion has broken out of its traditional definitions and practices and how current literary theories have influenced texts inside the religious domain and beyond Reading Spiritualities presents both commentary and vivid examples of this evolution engaging with a variety of reading practices that work with traditional texts and those that extend the notion of text itself The contributors draw on a range of textual sites such as an interview Caribbean literature drama and jazz women s writings emerging church blogs Neo pagan websites the reading practices of Buddhist nuns empirical studies on the reading experiences of Gujarati Christian and post Christian women Chicana short stories the mosque cinema modern art and literature These examples open up understandings of where and how sacred texts are emerging and being reassessed within contemporary religious and spiritual contexts and make room for readings where the spiritual resides not only in the textual but in other unexpected places Reading Spiritualities includes contributions from Graham Holderness Ursula King Michael N Jagessar David Jasper Anthony G Reddie Mich le Roberts and Heather Walton to reflect and encourage the interdisciplinary study of sacred text in the broad arena of the arts and social sciences It offers a unique and well focussed snapshot of the textual constructions and representations of the sacred within the contemporary religious climate accessible to the general reader as well as more specialist interests of students and researchers working in the crossover fields of religious theological cultural and literary studies Theologising Brexit Anthony G. Reddie, 2019-06-03 This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the theological challenge presented by the new post Brexit epoch The referendum vote for Britain to leave the European Union has led to a seismic shift in the ways in which parts of the British population view and judge their compatriots The subsequent rise in the reported number of racially motivated incidents and the climate of vilification and negativity directed at anyone not viewed as authentically British should be a matter of concern for all people The book is comprised of a series of essays that address varying aspects of what it means to be British and the ways in which churches in Britain and the Christian faith could and should respond to a rising tide of White English nationalism. It is a provocative challenge to the all too often tolerated xenophobia as well as the paucity of response from many church leaders in the UK. This critique is offered via the means of a prophetic postcolonial model of Black theology that challenges the incipient sense of White entitlement and parochial nativism that pervaded much of the referendum debate. The essays in this book challenge the church and wider society to ensure justice and equity for all not just a privileged sense of entitlement for some. It will be of keen interest to any scholar of Black political and liberation theology as well as those involved in cultural studies from a postcolonial perspective.

Pastoral Care and Counseling in Large/Mega Congregations Jean Beedoe, 2016-08-04 Church growth in metropolitan communities motivated a short study concerning the pastoral care and counseling of immigrants specifically Black Caribbean congregants in large mega congregations. Culture, denomination, history and interpretations of scripture enter into the dynamics of defining not only the pastoral office of leaders but their perception of care. The phenomenological cycle of care is said to exist as an exchange happens between caregivers and care receivers. Such an exploration of three congregations opened up rare concepts of the psycho-social and spiritual nature that guide interpersonal relationships of family systems across cultures. Large mega congregations desire women's as well as men's style of nurturing and of fellowship that form the characteristics of a sharing, caring congregation. The study implicated a need for more comprehensive interdisciplinary teaching methods to train church leaders and clergy. It signals for an approach in practical theology to develop curricula for spiritual health of cultural plurality in congregations and community.

Third World Liberation Theologies Deane W. Ferm, 2004-04-15 Here for the first time is a systematic survey of the principal liberation theologians from Asia, Africa and Latin America. Exposing the rich variety of Third World liberation theologies, the author highlights points of agreement and divergence in approaches and context and critically assesses the most often heard criticisms of liberation theology. With its companion volume Third World Liberation Theologies: A Reader, this survey represents the most comprehensive introduction in any language to what may well be the most significant theological development of this century.

Prophet from the South Prince Dibeela, Puleng Lenka-Bula, Vuyani Vellem, 2014-08-01 Allan Boesak was one of the foremost leaders in the struggle against apartheid. His role in the church in South Africa internationally and in the United Democratic Front contributed significantly to the demise of apartheid. He championed the rights of the oppressed and became the representative voice of the poor and disadvantaged. Allan is a gifted preacher, teacher, theologian, writer and an orator blessed with poetic tendencies and a flourishing vocabulary. He has the natural ability to inspire, motivate and stimulate critical and analytical thinking and responses where globalisation threatens to be a new form of colonisation. He has eloquently championed the cause of economic justice, justice for the earth, gender justice and the struggle against homophobia in the church. His voice is a voice we urgently need to hear again in this era. From Garvey to Marley Noel Leo Erskine, 2007-04-22 This history of the theology and rituals of Rastafarianism features accents of the reggae rhythms of Bob Marley and the teachings and philosophy of Marcus Garvey the black nationalist who motivated many of his fellow Jamaicans to embrace their African ancestral roots Written by a trained theologian who was raised in the Jamaican village in which the Rastafarian faith originated the book offers both a serious inquiry into the movement and the perspective of an insider in conversation with elders of the faith who still live in the village Noel Leo Erskine isolates and defines the main tenets of Rastafarianism which emerged toward the end of the 20th century as a way of life and as a new international religion He includes biographical descriptions of the key players in the development of Rastafari theology provides details of its organization and ethos and discusses the role of women in the religion He also discusses the significance of Ethiopia to the faith practitioners view that country both as their homeland and as heaven on earth Examining the religion's relationship to Christianity Erskine relates the Rastas to 19th century Native Baptist and Revivalist traditions on the island and to the black theology movement in the United States The Rastas see the European and North American churches as representatives of an oppressive colonial class he writes The Rastafarian name for God Jah Is derived from Yahveh the God of the Hebrews and members of the faith connect their struggle for dignity and solidarity in Jamaican society with the struggle of the oppressed Israelites Jah and not the Bible is the decisive source of morality and truth for the Rastas The book will be important in the fields of African African American and Caribbean studies especially to the cultural and religious dimensions in each discipline Jacket Caribbean journal of religious studies, 1991 Theology After Reading Darren J.
