Deconstruction Of Man:

Deconstruction, Feminist Theology, and the Problem of Difference Ellen T. Armour, 1999-06-15 Ellen T Armour shows how the writings of Jacques Derrida and Luce Irigaray can be used to uncover feminism's white presumptions so that race and gender can be thought of differently In clear concise terms she explores the possibilities and limitations for feminist theology of Derrida's conception of woman and Irigaray's multiple woman as well as Derrida's thinking on race and Irigaray's work on religion

The Deconstruction of Literature David H. Hirsch, 1991 Criticizes deconstructionist literary theory because it is anti humanistic and negates value historical truth and the worth of individual experience Notes that Heidegger embraced Nazism as in tune with his philosophy that French deconstructionists who experienced the German occupation prefer to repress this memory that Paul de Man published antisemitic articles in Nazi journals in 1940-41 and that Hans Robert Jauss served throughout the war in the Waffen SS in Eastern Europe though he claims to have known nothing of the Holocaust Argues that deconstructionism's negation of truth its proposition that language by its very nature serves deception is convenient for persons with such a background Points to affinities between deconstructionism and the recontextualization of the Holocaust in revisionist historiography in which the point of view of the victim is replaced by that of the accused Asserts that deconstructionist literary critics have ignored Holocaust literature because they devalue the real experience of human beings

Pun(k) Deconstruction jan jagodzinski, 2018-12-07 In Postmodern Dilemmas Outrageous Essays in Art Art Education and Pun k Deconstruction Experifigural Writings in Art Art Education jan jagodzinski presents a series of essays covering a timespan of approximately ten years These essays chart the theory and practice of art art education as it relates to issues of postmodernity and poststructuralism concerning representation identity politics consumerism postmodern architecture ecology phallogentrism of the artistic canon pluriculturalism media and technology and AIDS As a former editor of The Journal of Social Theory in Art Education and a founding member for the Caucus on Social Theory in Art Education the author attempts to deconstruct the current art education paradigm which is largely based on modernist tenets and to reorient art education practice to social issues as developed in both media education and cultural studies Part of the intent in these two volumes is to undertake a sustained critique of the 1982 Art in the Mainstream A I M statement which continues to be considered as the core value for art education The distinct intention of this critique is to put forward a new value base for art art education in these postmodern times Many of the essays raise the need to be attentive to sex gender issues in art art education and the need to read the artistic discourse otherwise There is a sustained critique of the art programs developed by the Getty Center for the Arts whose arts curriculum presents the paradigm case of late modernist thinking Some essays are written in a provocative form that tries to accommodate such content This is particularly the case in Pun k Deconstruction where architectural discourse is deconstructed and which includes an artistic performance given by the author in 1987 This singular set of volumes combines scholarship in the areas of gender studies aesthetics art history art education poststructuralism and cultural studies in a unique blend of theory and practice for rethinking the field of art education

Liu Zaifu: Selected Critical Essays Zaifu Liu,2021-06-17 Liu Zaifu is a name that has already been ingrained within contemporary Chinese literary history This landmark volume presents Anglophone readers with Liu s profound reflections on Chinese literature and culture at different times The essays collected here demonstrate Liu s historical experience and trajectory as an exiled Chinese intellectual who persistently safeguards the individuality and the autonomy of literature refusing to succumb to political manipulation Liu s theory of literary subjectivity has opened ways for Chinese writers to thrive and innovate His panoramic view not only unravels the intricate interplay between literature and politics but also firmly regards the transcendental value of literature as a significant ground to subvert revolutionary dogmatism and criticize Chinese modernity Rather than drawing upon the existing paradigm he reinvents his own unique theoretical conceptions in order to exile the borrowed gods

Filmspeak Edward Tomarken,2012-10-04 Filmspeak is an accessible innovative book which uses specific examples to show how once arcane literary and cultural theory has infiltrated popular culture Theory reaches us in ways we do not even realize Issues such as the nature of knowledge or truth the function of personal response in interpretation the nature of the forces of politics the female alternative to the male view of the world are fundamental for all of us And intelligent analysis of the relationship between literary theory and popular culture can help us to understand our fast changing world Here experienced literary scholar and teacher Edward L Tomarken explains how it is possible to study the rudiments of literary theory by watching and analyzing contemporary mainstream movies from The Dark Knight to Kill Bill and from The Social Network to The Devil Wears Prada Theorists discussed include Foucault Jameson Iser and Cixous Tomarken brilliantly demonstrates that anyone can grasp modern literary theory by way of mainstream movies without having to wade through stacks of impenetrable jargon

The Nation ,1884

The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism Michael Groden,Martin Kreiswirth,Imre Szeman,2005 Publisher Description

Deconstruction, Imperialism and the West Indian Novel Glyne A. Griffith,1996 This book provides an analysis of the West Indian novel in the context post structuralism The author sets up a dialogue between West Indian intellectual practice as exemplified by thinkers such as George Lamming C L R James and E Kamau Brathwaite and the discussions privileged by Foucault and Derrida as they examine what might be called the will to identity The work demonstrates that many West Indian novels implicitly prefigured deconstructive practice as elucidated by Jacques Derrida In addition it observes that the powerful hegemony of imperialism as ubiquitous in the Caribbean as the tropical sunshine needs to be included in any aesthetic equation which focuses on the West Indian novel As such Michel Foucault's critique of power and epistemic violence is interwoven with Derrida's analyses of a metaphysics of exclusion Eschewing a chronological approach the work concludes with textual analyses which provide the reader with insight into theory as well as practice

Differentia, 1986 The Movement of Showing Johan de Jong, 2020-03-01 This book explores the idea shared by Derrida Hegel and Heidegger that the value of their thought is not found in its results or conclusions but in its movement All three describe the heart of their work in terms of a pathway development or movement that seems to deprive their thought of a solid ground Johan de Jong argues that this is a structural vulnerability that is the source of its value tracing Derrida's indirect method from his early to later works and critically considering his engagements with Hegel and Heidegger De Jong's analysis locates an affinity among Hegel Heidegger and Derrida in a shared distrust of externality and against the grain of some Levinasian commentaries argues that Derrida's indirectness results in an ethics of complicity The Movement of Showing answers a central question that many polemics about continental philosophy and postmodernism revolve around namely with which methods does one philosophize responsibly It shows the difference between critique and polemics and why simply taking up a position for or against is insufficient in order to think responsibly
