at Yale University Harold Bloom Geoffrey Hartman Paul de Man and J Hillis Miller whose work can be described in relation to the deconstructive philosophy practiced by French philosopher Jacques Derrida For over a decade the Yale Critics have aroused controversy most often they are considered as a group to be applauded or attacked rather than as individuals whose ideas merit critical scrutiny Here a new generation of scholars attempts for the first time a serious broad assessment of the Yale group These essays appraise the Yale Critics by exploring their roots their individual careers and the issues they introduce Wallace Martin s introduction offers a brilliant compact account of the Yale Critics and of their relation to deconstruction and the deconstruction to two characteristically Anglo American enterprises Paul Bove explores the new criticism and Wlad Godzich the reception of Derrida in America Next come essays giving individual attention to each of the critics Michael Sprinker on Hartman Donald Pease on Miller Stanley Corngold on de Man and Daniel O Hara on Bloom Two essays then illuminate deconstruction in America through a return to modern continental philosophy Donald Marshall on Maurice Blanchot and Rodolphe Gasche on Martin Heidegger Finally Jonathan Arac s afterword brings the volume together and projects a future beyond the Yale Critics Throughout the contributors aim to provide a balanced view of a subject that has most often been treated polemically While useful as an introduction The Yale Critics also engages in a serious critical reflection on the uses of the humanities in American today
