Deep Perception Jeremy Barris,2024-08-27 Deep Perception The Direct Awareness of Individual Being and the Practice of Being Who We Are argues that direct perceptions of the being or essential character of a person thing or situation are possible These include perceptions of what integrally belongs to that being The book also argues that these perceptions are enactments and expressions of our own being While the mainstreams of both analytic and continental philosophy reject the conceivability of such a perception Jeremy Barris argues that these traditions own implicit concepts of being allow and in fact account for its meaningfulness and possibility Drawing on these implicit concepts and on Zen Daoist and some esoteric traditions Deep Perception develops an account of the nature and logic of these deep perceptions and explores the nature and method of engaging in these perceptions what is involved in living with them and their implications for various areas of our conduct

The Holy Spirit and You Rick Renner,2007-08-01 Most Christians live and die never knowing the fellowship and companionship of the Holy Spirit They have heard about the Holy Spirit and may even know doctrinal answers regarding the Third Person of the Godhead But knowing about the Holy Spirit and personally knowing Him in daily fellowship are two very different things

Husserlian Phenomenology in a New Key Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2012-12-06

The God Who Saves David W. Congdon,2016-09-08 Christian universalism has been explored in its biblical philosophical and historical dimensions For the first time The God Who Saves explores it in systematic theological perspective In doing so it also offers a fresh take on universal salvation one that is postmetaphysical existential and hermeneutically critical The result is a constructive account of soteriology that does justice to both the universal scope of divine grace and the historicity of human existence In The God Who Saves David W Congdon orients theology systematically around the New Testament witness to the apocalyptic inbreaking of God s reign The result is a consistently soteriocentric theology Building on the insights of Rudolf Bultmann Ernst Kasemann Eberhard Jungel and J Louis Martyn he interprets the saving act of God as the eschatological event that crucifies the old cosmos in Christ Human beings participate in salvation through their unconscious existential cocrucifixion in which each person is interrupted by God and placed outside of himself or herself Both academically rigorous and pastorally sensitive The God Who Saves opens up new possibilities for understanding not only what salvation is but also who the God who brings about our salvation is Here is an interdisciplinary exercise in dogmatic theology for the twenty first century From Uncertainty to Destiny Aldi Essandjo,2014-03-31

Prepare yourself to relocate from the grievous path of Uncertainty to the indescribable aisle of Destiny to fulfill a God breathed and endowed Purpose God does not desire for you to live in uncertainty He desires for you to reach your destiny Though moments of uncertainty may cloud your atmosphere God allows them for the simple act of appreciation and for His works to be displayed in your life Character Development in Schools and Beyond Kevin Ryan,Thomas Lickona,1992
