that will sustain console and give hope from a poet at the height of his powers A Concordance to the Poems of Robert Browning Leslie Nathan Broughton, Benjamin Franklin Stelter, 1925 The hope in poetry Giuseppe Fornasig, 2024-10-18

Fornasari's entire work seems to be interpenetrated by the hope of a singular perception of new humanism which is the central nucleus. The possible actualization would appear in the contemporary man when he finds himself carrier of a new mind where daily conscience and the subconscious meet through the analysis of dreams. A new mind in which the reality in front of him actualizes for interaction a reality that he helps build. The poetic style elevates itself with contents form and style. Therefore in a greedy time such as ours that grants very little to reading and even less to poetry the commitment of a poet like Giuseppe Fornasari contributes on many levels to re-define the role of the intellectual. Giorgio Barberi Squarotti understood it very well and in some letters sent to the author he stated: Dear Fornasari, I'm reading with true interest and participation. Your poetry is fundamentally conceptual between memory, religiousness, moral research and myth. It's a very intense discourse, a great one that includes the reader and brightens him with truth and grace. And again: Thank you from the bottom of my heart for the new collection of poems which I read with great benefit and admiration. I love in particular the verses of religious vision of myths old and new of critical contemplations of the truth of the art.
