Decentering the Center Uma Narayan, Sandra G. Harding, Sandra Harding, 2000 The essays in this volume bring to their focuses on philosophical issues the new angles of vision created by the multicultural global and postcolonial feminisms that have been developing around us These multicultural global and postcolonial feminist concerns transform mainstream notions of experience human rights the origins of philosophic issues philosophic uses of metaphors of the family white antiracism human progress scientific progress modernity the unity of scientific method the desirability of universal knowledge claims and other ideas central to philosophy

Divine Multiplicity Chris Boesel, S. Wesley Ariarajah, 2013-11-11 The essays in this volume ask if and how trinitarian and pluralist discourses can enter into fruitful conversation with one another Can trinitarian conceptions of divine multiplicity open the Christian tradition to more creative and affirming visions of creaturely identities difference and relationality including the specific difference of religious plurality Where might the triadic patterning evident in the Christian theological tradition have always exceeded the boundaries of Christian thought and experience Can this help us to inhabit other religious traditions conceptions of divine and or creaturely reality The volume also interrogates the possibilities of various discourses on pluralism by putting them in a concrete pluralist context and asking to what extent pluralist discourse can collect within itself a convergent diversity of orthodox heterodox postcolonial process poststructuralist liberationist and feminist sensibilities while avoiding irruptions of conflict competition or the logic of mutual exclusion

Sensory Politics Bradley Robert Erickson, 2008 The Broken Whole Thomas E. Reynolds, 2012-02-01 In an increasingly precarious global situation and in light of the postmodern emphasis on difference efforts to grasp the whole as something universally shared by all human beings have fallen short according to Thomas E Reynolds In this book he explores the philosophical and theological significance of the problem of pluralism and asserts that the shared resources of the world's religious traditions can be used to cultivate peace and solidarity across diverse boundaries He engages a range of philosophical thinkers such as Gadamer Marcel Rorty Foucault Levinas Derrida and Habermas and brings them into conversation with contemporary theologians and writers in religious studies Presenting a vision of solidarity that is both religiously charged and philosophically astute The Broken Whole outlines an inventive approach toward retrieving the relevance of God talk an approach rooted in a philosophy of dialogue and cross cultural hospitality

Understanding Blanchot, Understanding Modernism Christopher Langlois, 2018-06-14 Maurice

Blanchot occupies a central though still overlooked position in the Anglo American reception of 20th century continental philosophy and literary criticism. On the one hand his rigorous yet always playful exchanges with the most challenging figures of the philosophical and literary canons of modernity have led thinkers such as Georges Bataille, Emmanuel Levinas, Jacques Derrida and Michel Foucault to acknowledge Blanchot as a major influence on the development of literary and philosophical culture after World War II. On the other hand Blanchot's reputation for frustrating readers with his difficult style of thought and writing has resulted in a missed opportunity for leveraging Blanchot in advancing the most essential discussions and debates going on today in the comparative study of literature, philosophy, politics, history, ethics and art. Blanchot's voice is simply too profound, too erudite and too illuminating of what is at stake at the intersections of these disciplines not to be exercising more of an influence than it has in only a minority of intellectual circles. Understanding Blanchot: Understanding Modernism brings together an international cast of leading and emergent scholars in making the case for precisely what contemporary modernist studies stands to gain from close inspection of Blanchot's provocative post-war writings.

Refraction of the Human Eye and Methods of Estimating the Refraction James Thorington, 1916 The Medical Brief, 1911 Affinities and Extremes James A. Boon, 1990-04-20 Examining representations of Balinese culture in complex contexts of Indonesia's colonial history, Hindu ritual practice as opposed to Islam and comparative Indo-European hierarchies. Boon offers a powerful critique of doctrinal approaches to culture, religion, literature, politics and the history of ideas and disciplines. Bausch & Lomb Magazine Bausch & Lomb Optical Company, 1923 The Optical Journal and Review of Optometry. ..., 1920 The American Journal of Clinical Medicine, 1914 Christensen's Introduction to the Physics of Diagnostic Radiology Edward E. Christensen, Thomas S. Curry, James E. Dowdey, Robert C. Murry, 1984 Transactions of the American Ophthalmological Society Annual Meeting American Ophthalmological Society, 1888 A Manual of the Diagnosis and Treatment of the Diseases of the Eye Edward Jackson, 1907 Environmental Ethics, 2004 Medical Brief, 1911
