Books in Print Supplement ,2002 The Politics of Public Budgeting Irene S. Rubin,2016-09-22 Public budgeting is inherently political In The Politics of Public Budgeting author Irene S Rubin lays out the actors involved interest groups public officials legislators and the public and shines a light on how these groups who each have their own goals are able to bargain and barter their way to a resolution The new Eighth Edition examines the budgeting process over time and sets issues like the federal deficit and health care expenditures in political and comparative context As in previous editions the book also draws on examples from all levels of government and emphasizes the relationships among them By carefully analyzing each strand of the decision making process Rubin shows the extraordinary cooperation involved in passing a budget and achieving accountability Sourcebook, Federal Agency Use of Alternative Means of Dispute Resolution Marguerite S. Millhauser,1987 Rethinking the Liberal Peace Shahrbanou Tadjbakhsh,2011-03-08 This book presents a critical analysis of the liberal peace project and offers possible alternatives and models In the past decade the model used for reconstructing societies after conflicts has been based on liberal assumptions about the pacifying effects of open markets and open societies Yet despite the vast resources invested in helping establish the precepts of this liberal peace outcomes have left much to be desired The book argues that failures in the liberal peace project are not only due to efficiency problems related to its adaptation in adverse local environments but mostly due to problems of legitimacy of turning an ideal into a doctrine for action The aim of the book is to scrutinize assumptions about the value of democratization and marketization and realities on the ground by combining theoretical discussions with empirical evidence from key post conflict settings such as Iraq and Afghanistan These show the disparities that exist between the ideals and the reality of the liberal peace project as seen by external peacebuilders and domestic actors The book then proposes various alternatives and modifications to better accommodate local perspectives values and agency in attempts to forge a new consensus This book will be of great interest to students of peacebuilding peacekeeping statebuilding war and conflict studies international security and IR
