Decolonizing Tradition:

Decolonizing Tradition Karen Lawrence, 1992 Decolonizing Theory Aditya Nigam, 2021-12-30 Decolonizing Theory Thinking across Traditions aims at disentangling theory from its exclusively Western provenance drawing insights and concepts from other thought traditions connecting to what it argues is a new global moment in the reconstitution of theory The key argument which is the point of departure of the book is that any serious theorizing in the non West should be fundamentally suspicious of any theory that only gives you one result that four fifths of the world does not and cannot do anything right Everything in the non West from its modernity and secularism to its democracy and even capitalism is always seen to be deficient In other words all it tells us is that we do not live up to the standards set by Western modernity From this point of departure it seeks to create a conceptual space outside Western modernity and capitalism by insisting on a rethink of non synchronous synchronicities The book takes three key themes around which the whole story of modernity can be unraveled namely the question of the political capital and historical time and secularism for a detailed discussion It does so by bracketing in a sense the autobiographical story that Western modernity gives itself In each case it tries to show that past forms never simply disappear without residue to be fully supplanted by the modern and merely applying theory produced in one context to another is therefore very misleading The Passage of Literature Christopher GoGwilt, 2011-01-27 Through a set of comparative studies of the fiction of Joseph Conrad Jean Rhys and Pramoedya Ananta Toer The Passage of Literature explains the interrelation between English Creole and Indonesian formations of literary modernism arguing that each passage of literature is the site of contest between competing genealogies of culture CLA Journal ,2016

Suppressed Modernisms Michael Gluzman, 1993 We Are the Stars Sarah Hernandez, 2023-02-21 We are the Stars critically interrogates the U S as a settler colonial nation and re centers Oceti Sakowin women as our tribe s traditional culture keepers and culture bearers The Western Humanities Review ,2005 Sulfur ,1994 Songs of Honor, Words of Respect Virginia K. Goode, 1998 Ariel ,1992 Introduction to Cultural Studies Aleida Assmann, 2019 Divided into seven themed chapters signs media body time space memory and identity this book aims to provide a fresh approach to complex theoretical and historical questions Sparking the reader s interest in literature from different genres and periods this volume not only provides a useful introduction it is an important study tool which supports the reader s own endeavours to get to grips with the relationship between reading and major key questions of culture Back cover Re: Reading, Re: Writing, Re: Teaching Virginia Woolf Eileen Barrett, Patricia Cramer, 1995-06-06 To find more information on Rowman Littlefield titles please visit us at www.rowmanlittlefield.com Transculture ,1996 Doris Lessing Newsletter ,1993 Asia/Pacific as Space of Cultural Production Rob Wilson, Arif Dirlik, 1995 Although the Asia Pacific region occupies a prominent place in geopolitical thinking little is available to readers concerning the resistant communities and cultures of Pacific and Asian peoples This book fills that gap by documenting the efforts of diverse indigenous cultures to claim and reimagine Asia Pacific as a space for their own cultural production by presenting essays poems and memoirs by prominent Asia Pacific writers that resist appropriation by transnational capitalism through the articulation of autonomous local identities and counter histories of place and community In addition cultural critics spanning several locations and disciplines deconstruct representations particularly those on film and in novels that perpetuate Asia Pacific as a realm of EuroAmerican fantasy This collection offers a new perception of the Asia Pacific region by presenting the Pacific not as a paradise or vast emptiness but as a place where living struggling peoples have constructed contemporary identities out of a long history of hegemony and resistance back cover Killing Spanish Lyn F.
